“This week has been inspiring and made my heart skip a few beats faster at times, and allowed my soul to live in the moment. Many thanks to each and every person who contributed to make this happen.”

— Gai C; Woonona, AU (Alaska 2018)

Adventure

Every day is rich with exploration. Kayak in a quiet cove eyed by an eagle. Snorkel with a raft of sea lions nibbling on your flippers. Beachcomb rocky shores uncovering layers of tiny ecosystems. Get out and explore in our favorite playgrounds where nature and the potential to cross paths with wildlife lead the way. If you're new to any activity, we've got you covered. From kayaking 101 to your first time on a paddle board, your expedition team helps you find the right fit and is at the ready to lend a hand. At the end of each day, everyone has stories to share.

Place

The only sounds, a kittiwake's call or an oystercatcher's whistle, a calving glacier or the splash of a breaching whale. A calming effect happens when your surroundings are truly green: the forests, water, and sea turtles, and our care for the environment and wildlife. There's a reason we go deep, listen to the locals (even howler monkeys!) and opt for remote corners. It's not just because they're magnificent. It's because it's in these secluded reaches where you use all your senses to discover a place. Your captain and crew have a nose for opportunity—the narrowest channels and tiniest towns. Trust that you will go there. And expect the unexpected.

Connection

Meet your tribe. From solo adventurers to multi-generational families, travelers come with a range of stories, but always share a few attitudes: enthusiasm for exploration, eagerness to discover, and readiness to unwind. You might not know it yet, but these are your people. And with an open-hearted crew leading the charge there's never a lack of expertise, and everyone is at ease. Small activity groups are both intimate and wilderness-compatible. No lines or wrangling for space to view wildlife. Just questions answered and tales traded, connecting to nature, your travel mates, and yourself. The best way to see these places is stepping into them with folks as excited as you.

Snapshot: Eyes on the prize.

small ships, BIG adventures<sup>SM</sup>

Welcome aboard. After a crew member gives you a quick tour of your cabin, take a stroll around the ship and head to the lounge for a glass of bubbly and to meet your shipmates.

Then you're off on an all-out active experience, thanks to our uncompromising commitment to going places and doing things others can't. It's that mission combined with cozy groups that sets us apart. Small ships—hosting 90 guests, tops—fulfill unimpeded excitement about truly getting in the wild with a few nature-leaning souls.

Like each of our adventurers, no two UnCruise departures are ever the same. Yet all experiences engulf you in nature. Engage with our favorite places (they'll soon be yours!) with your body and mind—through active, on-the-ground, in-the-water explorations. You'll learn a lot. And, we like to think, look at the world a little differently when you return.

“We just couldn't have planned a trip that was more perfect for us. We value the same things—learning, adventure, care for the world around us. No need went unmet.”

— Jeannie L; Mahtomedi, MN (Alaska 2018)

Snapshot: In sync.

Finding our Un-ness

Alaska, the birthplace of UnCruise, was wide open for exploration. Almost 25 years later, innovation continues to be at the core of our motto. Today, we are still driven by our commitment to leaving the charted course and really exploring what the world has to offer. Your crew, and everyone working hard behind the scenes, has a fierce love of travel and a deep respect and appreciation for the wilderness, wildlife, culture, and heritage of the places we visit. We're pretty proud to say this rubs off on our guests.

UnCruisers

Our small ships are intimate, and it doesn't take long for guests and crew to get comfortable. Plenty of laughs are shared on board during meals, cocktail hour, and on excursions. But it's more than shared experiences. As travelers, guests quickly discover similar hobbies and interests. We bet you'll find something in common.

Wondering who your fellow adventurers might be? They hail from all walks of life. A medley of ages, lifestyles, places around the globe; couples, singles, and generations of family; educators and the educated (be it the school of life or a PhD), savvy travelers, entrepreneurs, even the occasional celebrity. From the young to the young-at-heart, they generally like each other. So much so, it's not uncommon to see them traveling together again.

Snapshot: The long and winding moat.

Unparalleled Value

From your very first inquiry, expect personalized service and expertise—and a host of benefits that make us unique.

Backstage pass	Small group travel—from the ship itself to groups of a dozen or so afield—puts you in on the action (not watching from afar), with AHA! and “I-can’t-believe-I-just-did-that” moments around every corner.
Expert guides	Seriously—they’re aces. Our guides have vast and deep experience, plus an impressive collection of advanced degrees in curiosity-peaking subjects from whales to fungi to geology. Their enthusiasm is infectious.
Home away from home	Boats are comfortable, welcoming, and unique in style and personality. All are adventure-ready for gearing up, kicking back, and mixing and mingling.
Adventure for all	Kayak or paddle board. Snorkel or skiff. Beach stroll, hike, or mountain goat climb. There are plenty of options and equipment for everyone to join in the fun.
Active as you like it	Do as much or as little as you like. On top of the daily activities, ease into the day with sunrise stretches on the top deck. There’s exercise equipment at the ready, anytime. Or just watch the landscape go by.
Fresh, hand-crafted cuisine	You didn’t know it would be this good. Chefs (including pastry chefs) impress meal after meal with locally sourced ingredients, swoon-worthy desserts, and baked-on-board breads.
Cheers to that!	An astounding array of beverage options, both non-alcoholic and alcoholic (signature cocktails every night!), mean you’re never far from a toast. And it’s all included.
Zero hidden costs	What most defines your trip is included in the fare—excursions, adventure equipment, transfers, and baggage handling. Put your wallet away (until it’s time to recognize your topnotch crew).
Accommodating... and then some	Dietary restrictions? Special occasion? Need a little extra help on a hike? It’s our business to make sure your adventure not only matches your needs and expectations, but surpasses them. Just ask and we’ll do our best!
The ineffable spirit of adventure	We’re all in the same boat. Crew and guests alike, wide-eyed with wonder and childlike curiosity—and it shows. The excitement. Laughs. Collective energy. Then hug it out at the end of your adventure.

Ready.

It takes permits—thousands of them—to live out our adventure dreams. A process that starts years in advance, it's a big part of what sets us apart. To keep protected areas wild, the National Park Service, U.S. Forest Service, Tribal Councils, and other agencies often regulate how many people and commercial operators can enter an area and what they can do there. We're honored that they welcome us.

Once in these wild places, it's your crew that makes your experience. Your onboard team includes the captain, mates, engineers, chefs, expedition guides, and hotel, galley, and deck staff. All incredibly talented yet unique in the flair they bring on board. Like you, they've found their un-ness.

Each crew member is hand-picked for their outstanding knowledge, experience, customer service, and safety skills—as well as their genuine enthusiasm and welcoming spirit. Crew members undergo training in areas such as leadership, CPR, wilderness response, safety, guest services, and Leave No Trace practices. In other words, you're in great hands.

Your ship is equipped with regional books and your expedition team can answer any questions along the way. From whale and bear aficionados to fluvial geomorphologists (those who study how rivers shape the earth), your guides are full of facts and ready to share. Sit in on an after-dinner talk or pull them aside with one of your burning questions. If they don't know the answer, they'll find out.

Snapshot: 'Yay' to a day of play.

Set.

Preparing for all the possibilities can feel daunting. But keep it simple with a few essentials and you'll be set in a snap. Calf-high rubber boots are crucial for Pacific Northwest hiking and Alaskan bushwhacking—and are the ticket to dry feet. In warmer climates, pack your sandals or reef shoes for kayaking and paddle boarding. Trail conditions in Mexico and Latin America call for fully enclosed hiking shoes.

Liquid sunshine or cloud failure, adventures carry on. Let your mantra be “layers, layers, layers.” Add them on, peel them off as needed. The sun can shine bright in all our destinations so sunglasses and a brimmed hat do well to make it in your bag, too. As for general clothing, our guides helped create a packing list of destination-appropriate items to reference long before you travel. Pack the right gear plus your spirit of adventure and you're on your way.

You don't need a PhD in cultural or natural history to have a full experience, but it can be fun to get a head start on exploration. That's why we share recommended reading lists for each destination, plus interviews and bios on any accompanying theme experts. Get to know the people and places of your journey beforehand and get a jump on adventure.

Snapshot: Alaskan tennis shoes for the win.

Go.

Hiking

Bushwhack through brush or take a low-key tromp through Alaskan glacial mud and intertidal shores. Columbia & Snake Rivers and Pacific Northwest trails switchback up mountains and across fields. In Latin America, jungles are thick with roots, and trails well-worn by wildlife. A hike into a Mexican arroyo has elevation and possible rock scrambles. From easy strolls to an hours-long thigh-burner, hikes run the gamut, and we have hiking poles if you need them.

Kayaking & paddle boarding

Paddling through ebb and flow can be a workout or a natural way to reach your destination. Open kayaking is offered, but most are guided outings lasting from one to four hours. Paddle boards are also available in most destinations. If conditions are mellow and the water is smooth give it a try. Your guide shows you the ropes.

Skiff rides

From a quick shuttle ashore to a two-hour exploration, skiff rides get you farther faster. Want an easy-going adventure? Just settle in and focus on what's around you. Skiff rides are a piece of cake, and fun, too.

Snorkeling & polar plunges

Jump in—snorkeling activities range from deep water “jump and go” from a skiff to snorkeling 101 lessons. Your guides are there to help and get you fitted. Wet suits are available on board in some destinations and many guests also snorkel with a noodle. And let's not forget Alaska's polar plunge—a giant leap off the fantail into frigid water. Only for the brave or double dog darers. They're out there!

Family [F]UnCruise Discoveries

“It’s a happy talent to know how to play.” The wise words of Ralph Waldo Emerson sum up our philosophy pretty well. Our Family Discoveries program celebrates the curiosity and wonderment of kids of almost every age—from age 8 to 98 (and beyond!). Share a journey across generations.

It’s easy for families to adventure together with options to accommodate triples in higher cabin categories on six of our vessels. And while there are no adult-free play zones and no babysitting services on board, everyone learns while having fun:

- Tide pool treasure hunts
- Identifying flora and fauna
- Face painting with glacial mud
- Skiff rides and snorkeling with sea creatures
- Polar plunges and paddle board races

Kids ages 8 to 13 Save $500

on most all sailings! (details on page 75)

Groups & Charters

Whatever your group dynamic—family, adventure junkies, gals getaway, birders, stargazers, or corporate teams—it's all about camaraderie. Teambuilding amidst Alaska's gasp-worthy glaciers. Snorkeling with sea lion pups in Mexico's Sea of Cortés for kids, parents, and grandparents. Clinking glasses and reuniting with old friends on a wine and culinary cruise. And for a big group, there's nothing like the exclusivity of a private charter. The details—activities, amenities, and provisions—are arranged on your behalf and with your special requests in mind. With capacities from 22 to 90, there's a small ship just right for your group or charter adventure.

Group Benefits:

- Potential for fare savings or complimentary berths based on group size, vessel, and destination
- Unforgettable celebrations of life's milestones or corporate achievements
- Easy booking process with a high level of customer service
- Extra benefit possibilities: the Legacy's oversized suite savings for hosting onboard group gatherings

Private Charter Benefits:

- Savings depending on destination; corporations benefit from potential tax breaks on U.S.-flagged vessels
- A dedicated UnCruise charter specialist works directly with you to create your dream trip
- Collaborative provisioning takes ultimate consideration of food and beverage preferences
- Spontaneous within-voyage itinerary modifications as opportunities present themselves
- Charters are smarter—one-stop shopping takes care of all logistics from food and drinks to excursions and gear

Support from your UnCruise groups and charter team—before, during, and after the trip.

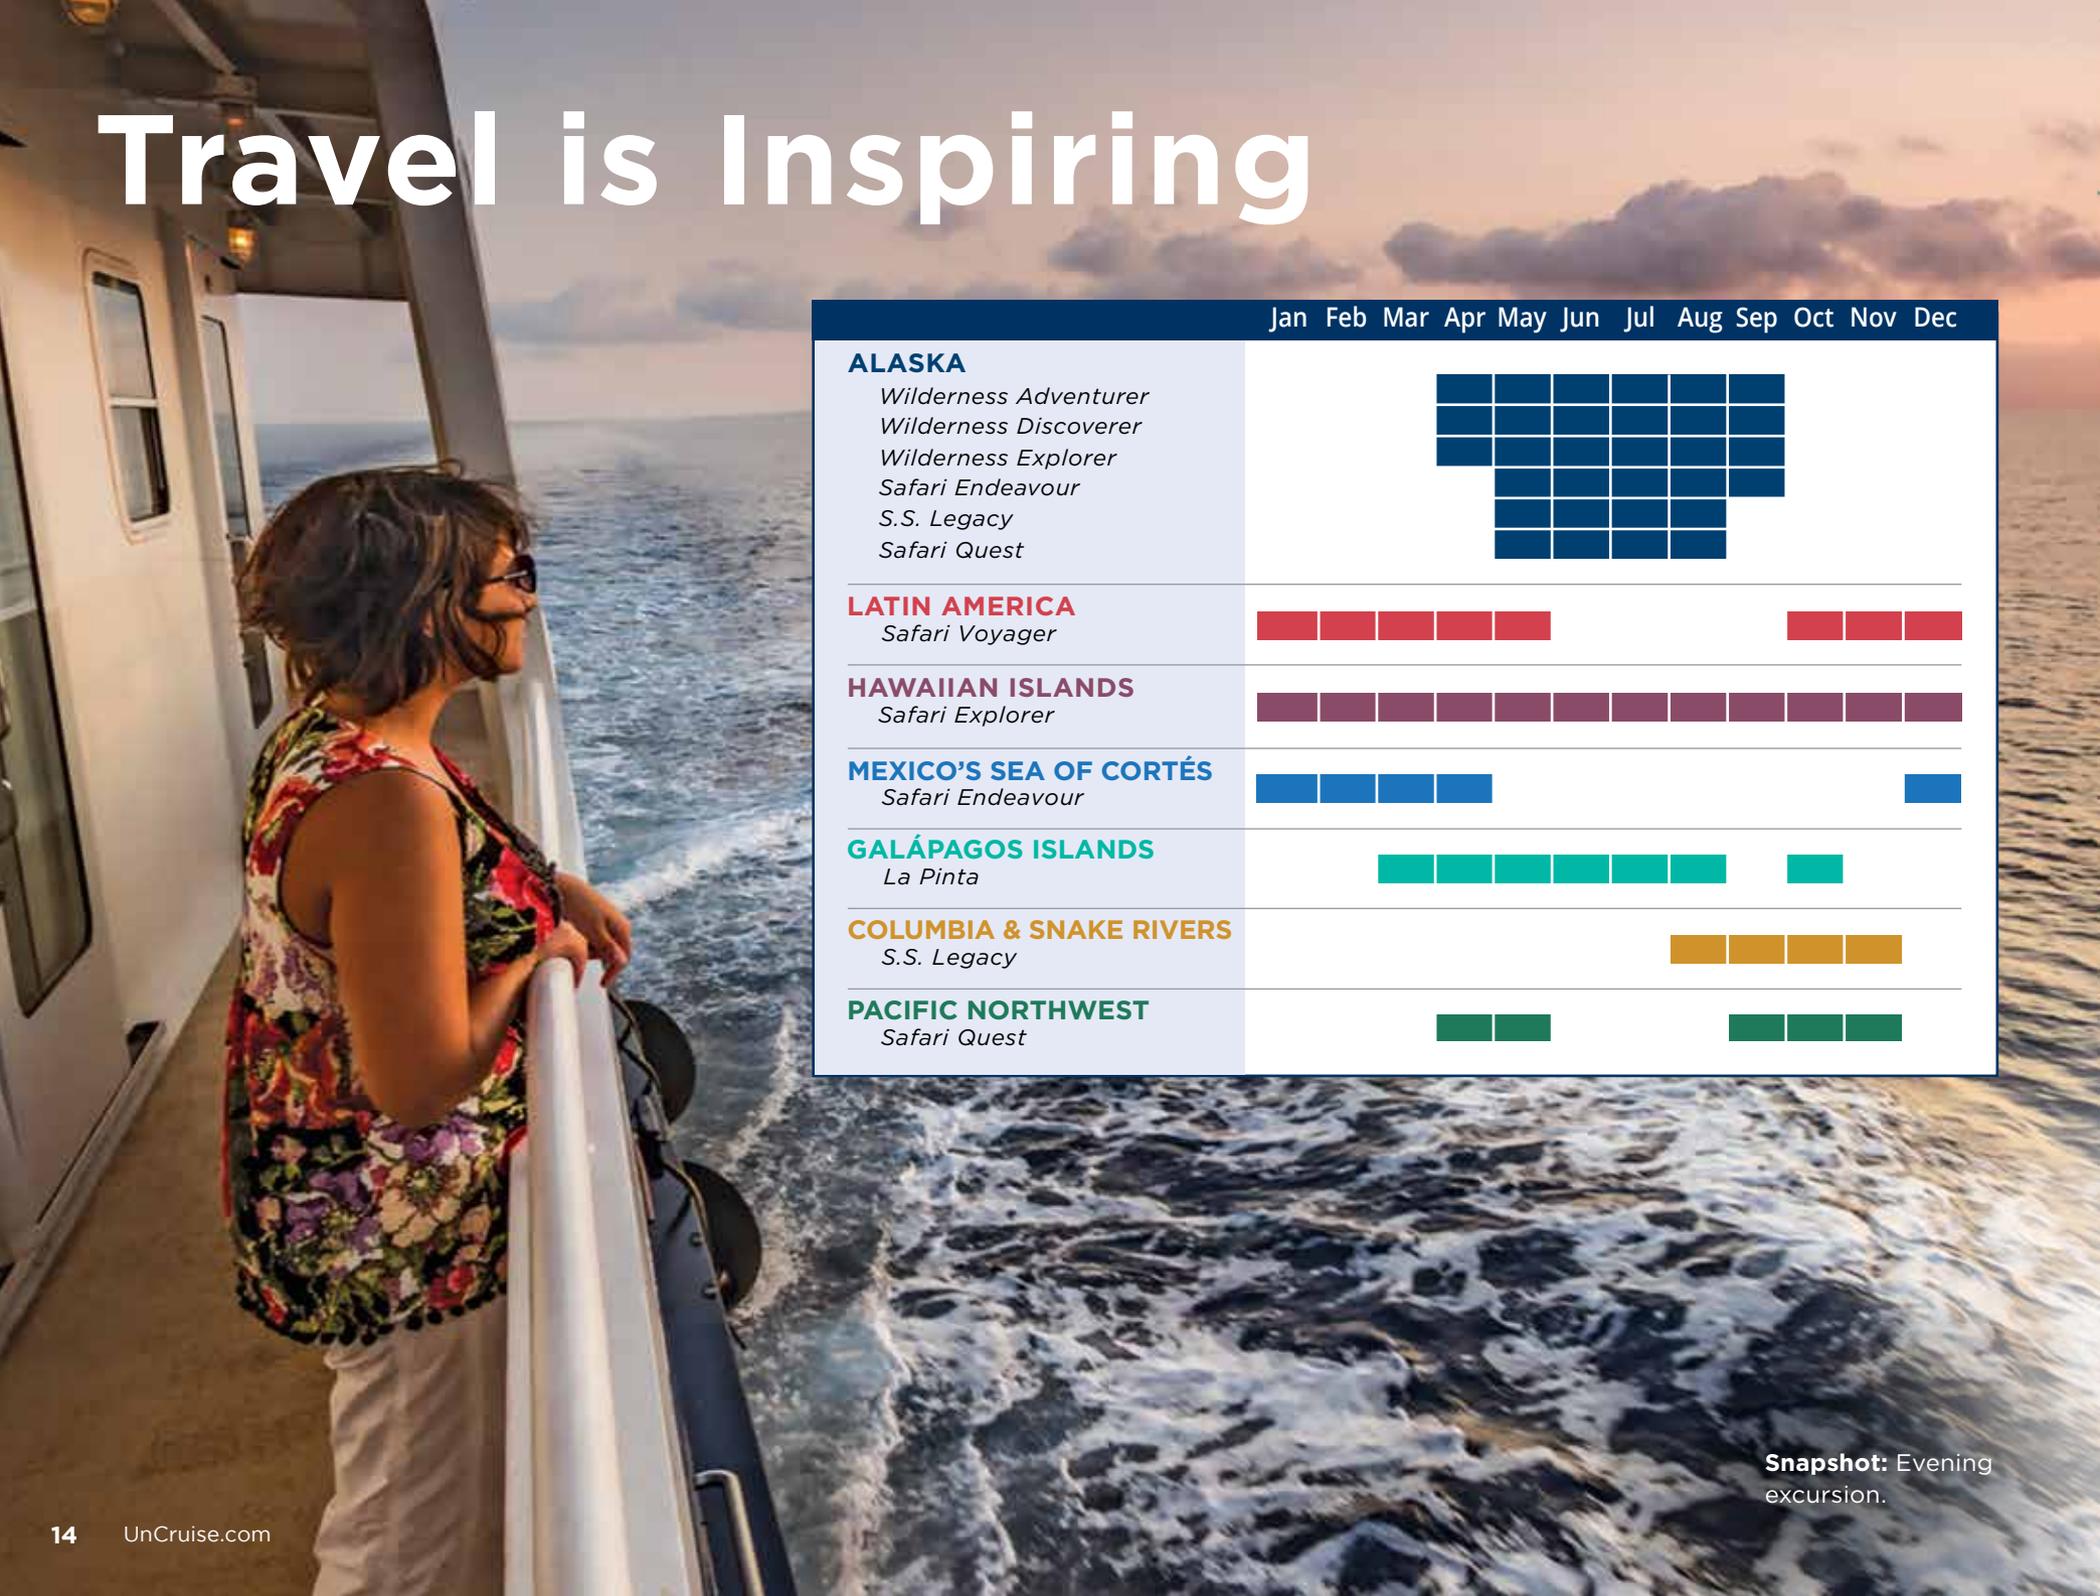

“We booked this cruise with our adult children and their significant others. Everyone was happy. The activities varied enough that each person found something they wanted to do every day.”

“UnCruise has spoiled us for any large cruise ship experience. Now we’re aware of the bigger picture—the pristine beauty, complex eco-system, ‘go with it’ philosophy. We were enlightened and awed to the max!”

Alaska

Your guide leads the way for a close-up of good old-fashioned Alaskan muskeg. Trees drip with pale green lichen—locals call it witch’s hair or old man’s beard. Rain pings on a pond. Shiny black mushrooms line a tree stump (awnings to a critter’s tiny home). Two flickers of brown peek through the green. A mom and baby moose navigate with trepidation. Even the guide is surprised to see them.

Moss and moose, thunderous glaciers, and tiny potato birds on the wing. Alaska is full of surprises great and small. UnCruise is the first to arrive, the last to leave, and nobody does it better. Your captains and crew know the area as intimately as they know their ships. Sharp eyes peeled for eagles, puffins, mountain goats, bears, and along the Canadian Inside Passage, Kermode “spirit bears.” And of course, humpback whales. Hike, kayak, play in the mud, hot tub under the stars, and take a polar plunge. Plans for everyone, whatever your level of activity.

Spring into fall, each route explores Alaska a little differently, but for many spring is their favorite time of year (you practically have Alaska all to yourself). Others prefer the popping colors of fall with its shorter days and greater possibility of Northern Lights. Fares differ depending on your vessel, departure date, and itinerary, but there’s an excellent option to fit most any budget.

Snapshot: The great observer sees all.

IN ONE DEXTEROUS MOVE, THE BEAR HELD THE SALMON IN PLACE WITH ITS PAW...

Off shore—but only just—the skiff comes to a near standstill, bobbing slowly with the water’s ebb and flow. Catching our movements, the bear looks up from its catch. Though my eyes never leave the scruffy figure, luckily he’s more interested in the fresh snack. Dinner for him, a show for us.

THEY CAME IN DROVES TO THE TINY CREEK ON BARANOF ISLAND. NOT GOLDRUSHERS, BUT A RUSH OF COHO SALMON...

We weren't the only ones drawn to the stream. Curious brown bears closed in on the action, twelve of them pawing and biting at the fish. A few fights even broke out. The winner takes it all—and we left with unbelievable action shots.

Costa Rica, Panamá, Colombia

A welcome with vibrant purples, greens, and blues from the Emberá tribe. Local youngsters take each of our hands as impromptu guides through their village. Banging drums and dance complete the ceremony. Home to friendly encounters—and Roseate spoonbills and other wily creatures—the Darién Jungle is vast. A feast for the senses, and wild at its most beautiful.

Tropical rainforests. Biodiverse jungles. Tangled mangroves. It's all lush. Trek and paddle under the watchful eyes of macaws while howler monkeys do acrobatics in the treetops and reef fish swim alongside you. Spot wildlife in the dense canopies of Costa Rica. Dip in for a picture-perfect snorkel among the islands of the Guna Yala. Explore Panamá's Isla Taboga—once visited by Paul Gauguin and Captain Morgan—and Colombia's Cartagena, a walled city lined with rainbow-hued houses. An evening Panamá Canal transit celebrates with dinner on the sun deck and a whisper of cool night air. With options to suit every speed, daily adventures feature active excursions and time to blend in with the "locals" and be a little sloth-like.

Snapshot: Ribbit, croak, blurp...
I eat what bugs me.

Tip! Hydrate. Hydrate. Hydrate.
Lush rainforests are made for hiking but call for replenishments. Drink up and adventure on.

“The staff made the trip! Their information and tours were well done. ...All amazing interactions. I loved the hidden locations. Seeing intact rainforests, and healthy corals is a rare treat.”

PRETTY AS A POSTCARD, THE BEACH ON THE TINY ISLET
LOOKED ABOUT AS BIG AS A POSTAGE STAMP...

But it was the perfect size for our small group. On the warm sand, toes in the water, I took it in. A tuft of jungle behind me. Rocky outcroppings at either end of the sand. # Hawaiian Islands

Outfitted in snorkeling gear, you're ready for a little nightlife. Underwater "campfire" lights at the bottom of the ocean face up to attract plankton, which lures Giant Pacific Manta rays—the guys you're here to party with. Just as you exchange anticipatory looks with your shipmates, a manta rises up from the dark, feeding a few feet away. Come daylight, you'll snorkel, kayak, paddle board, or sail past green sea turtles, pink tail triggerfish, "gentle giant" whale sharks, or spinner dolphins leaping alongside the bow. A marine sanctuary like no other.

It's true that the island vibe wafts across Molokai, Hawai'i, Lana'i, and Maui like the sweet fragrance of plumeria. But these scents and sights are more than paradise; they're part of tradition and culture for Native Hawaiians. The same plumeria is turned into your welcome lei. The taro plant—grown in patches beneath heart-shaped leaves—pounded into poi. You learn all about this ancient tradition as you "talk story" with the locals. It's just Hawaii's way of saying 'aloha'—which is basically love. All year long!

Snapshot: The call of the islands.

Tip!

Want to snorkel with ease and comfort? Pack a rashguard and you're set for tropical waters.

FOREHEADS AND NOSES TOUCH. INHALING AND EXHALING TOGETHER, THE ELDER OFFERS HIS WELCOME...

After the ritual of honi, or sharing breath, the revered Hawaiian invites us into his Halawa Valley home with a smile, to talk story. Lore of the island and the legacy of Kahunas, growing taro and the ancient practice of making poi—it's not long before I feel like part of his extended ohana. Hiking through the valley, I can feel the mana—the spiritual and life energy—of this place.

Included Highlights

Mexico's Sea of Cortés

The Romero family and their mules take two days to cross the mountains, a slow and steady trek that's a precursor to your own. Meet and greet the family and get matched with a mule that's just your size. Trace the intricate design on the hand-carved saddle and hop on! Your journey is along the beach, up and over easy hills, and through a palm tree oasis. These local rancheros know every bend in the trail—guiding you with their songs and easy trot. If your mule thinks he's found a shortcut, a friendly thump sets him back on track.

From prickly poppies to parrot fish, the Baja peninsula stretches across arid mountains to the rich ecosystem of the Sea of Cortés. The desert plunked in the sea. Island hopping in Mexico means hiking up rugged landscapes along red rock rims one day (stay sharp and you may spot a lizard running from one hot rock to another) and snorkeling with sea lion pups the next. Magnificent Frigatebirds and gulls fly between cliffs and hummingbirds are drawn to red flowers. By night, stargaze, watch the water for bioluminescence, or soak in the hot tub with cocktail in hand. Paradise found? You bet!

Snapshot: Let him show you the ropes.

Tip! Along with your beachy flip flops, pack hiking shoes or sneakers with sturdy tread for view-filled treks along the ridges.

Sea of Cortés

“Snorkeling with the sea lions made my top-10-things-I-did list! ...Some were swimming right up to our faces to give us an eyeball stare or munching on our flippers.”

MASK AND FINS PULLED ON, BIG BREATH IN—THIS SNORKEL IS IN DEEPER WATER...

Sliding from the skiff, our guide smiles encouragingly. Swimming slowly along the craggy islet, schools of fish dodge from our path. A flash below, then another. With gymnastic speed, a juvenile sea lion swims up, floating face-to-face, then zips away. Others join in, swimming loops, peering into faces, occasionally mouthing my flipper like a puppy.

Galápagos Islands

Set sail for the past. On Isla Floreana's Post Office Bay a barrel mailbox still stands—and operates—from the days when whalers sent messages home. Covered in driftwood scrawled with messages, it's an emblem of Darwin's days you have to touch to understand. Drop a note to tell the tale of your journey, becoming a part of centuries of stories.

The Galápagos Islands go back millions of years to when finches flew overhead, Blue-footed and Nazca boobies danced on the shoreline, and the giant tortoise lumbered through the bushes. These creatures are still there as you'll see by ship, shore, and on your visit to the Charles Darwin Research Station, learning about conservation efforts to protect this iconic marine habitat. Each island is filled with discoveries and its own endemic species. On Isla Rabida, hike through cacti and beaches colored red from lava while marine iguanas soak up the sun. Sally Lightfoot Crabs skitter about on the youngest island, Isla Fernandina. Spot whales and dolphins from a panga or glass-bottom boat. It's island hopping at its most exotic.

Snapshot: Pucker up.

Tip!

Did you know insects are drawn to pink, yellow, orange, and white? In the Galápagos, wise wardrobe color choices keep you in the clear.

“This adventure has been the first time I have been sad to go home. The immersion into the Galápagos environment and culture is beyond compare.”

Columbia & Snake Rivers

Legend has it that the 200-foot-high Palouse Falls was formed by a fight with a mythic creature, “Big Beaver.” In the struggle, Big Beaver gouged and tore at the canyon, forming the twisting bends in the river below. Now, you find traces of the battle in the gaps, cracks, and clefts lining the canyon walls. Feel the legend in your feet hiking atop for the view. Embrace the story in your arms paddling the Palouse River. It’s a step, paddle, or swim back in time. Long ago yet right now.

These aren’t sit-on-the-sidelines cruises. You’re in the middle of it all—jumping into adventure or tasting your way through the rivers’ wine and culinary scene. Each day the great outdoors calls: coulees and canyons, evergreen forests, and dramatic basalt cliffs. Explore the rivers’ trails on foot or by bike, and along shore by kayak and raft. Or, opt for a focus on wine, craft beer, and culinary touring and tasting (sipping from casks and meeting winemakers) at vineyards, wineries, breweries, and cideries. It’s all included—yes, all of it. Plus, your travels are topped with a dose of history and geology. Follow the path of Lewis & Clark from desert to rainforest. All you need to pack is your spirit of adventure.

Pacific Northwest

An old-growth forest blanketed in moss is the perfect place to try “forest bathing.” You don’t need your swimsuit (save that for the hot tub). Forest bathing is simply being in the woods, fully present. Among the trees, your eyes don’t know where to look: up to the canopy of green with the hope of catching a bald eagle soar by, or down in search of the Pacific Northwest’s famous banana slug. Trust your feet—and your expedition guides. Breathe in the air, like saying ‘hello’ to an old friend. There’s magic in these trees.

Back on board, your small ship slips through rugged islands and inlets, alongside glacial fjords, and past sea lions and pods of orcas. Watch from the bow or hop into a sea kayak for a better look. Rain or shine, gear up (we love our boots and rain jackets) and go from ship to shore on an easy beachcomb in tucked away coves. Harbor seals and sea stars are just around the bend.

Snapshot: The grand fin-ale.

Tip!

Layer up. Island winds can be strong and northern sun can shine bright. Our adventurers swear by fleece, rain jackets, and hats.

GLOWING ORBS, THE JELLYFISH GRACEFULLY FLOATED AROUND OUR KAYAKS...

Pausing near a slim finger of rock that plunges into the deep, bright pops of orange and purple sea stars cluster just below the surface. Small maroon crabs zip from one hiding spot to another on the sand. We circumnavigated the island, but all agree we could do it again. There was so much to see.

Life on Board

Each vessel has a unique personality. But all share a universal goal—to offer relaxation, comfort, and camaraderie. The crew calls you by name and quickly knows your preferences, making you feel right at home. You'll be impressed with how enthusiastic and accommodating everyone is. There's good energy and excitement.

Visit the captain on the bridge and learn about navigation. Share a few laughs in the lounge or on the bow eyeing the next WOW! moment. And it's easy to find a little solitude in a quiet nook when you want it. What guests least expect though is the bonding and heart. Sharing adventures with people who become friends for life, and meeting so many returning passengers.

Outer Decks & Inner Spaces

- An inviting dining room and lounge (with a variety of board games, books, and DVDs)
- Observation decks for wildlife viewing and relaxing under the stars
- Open bridge policy—visit and chat up your captain and mates

Wellness, Fitness & Relaxation

- On-deck hot tub*
- Fitness equipment or on-deck stretches
- Active adventure gear

**Except Safari Explorer, Safari Voyager*

Snapshot: Good times are in the cards.

Local. Fresh. Inspired.

A simple motto with delicious results. Our culinary program begins by building relationships with local farmers and vendors—with a focus on what’s fresh and sustainable. Field to table and ocean-friendly seafood from the waters we cruise in. The result? Innovative, nutritious, and tasty dining experiences that highlight flavors of the region. In Alaska, sample buttery-rich Dungeness crab caught live, in-season, by local fishermen. Or try roasted pineapple with mascarpone ice cream and banana bread crumble in the Hawaiian Islands. A true taste of place.

What you can expect

- Early-riser breakfasts of fresh fruit and baked-on-board pastries
- Full breakfasts with hot and cold options
- Lunches featuring salads, sandwiches, homemade soups, and regionally influenced dishes
- Varied hors d’oeuvres during cocktail hour
- Dinners with a choice of entrées including fresh, local seafood, meat, and vegetarian dishes
- Made-from-scratch desserts like tiramisu and lavender panna cotta
- Vegetarian dishes available at all meals
- Special dietary needs can be met with advance notice

Unless there’s a special barbecue or lunch on shore, most dinners are served over several courses. Attention is always paid to your personal preferences. And dining is casual with open seating so you can join new friends and choose a different table at every meal.

Celebrating a special occasion? Let us know when you book your cabin. Our expert pastry chef, and all the crew, love shout outs.

“Food/meal quality was way superior to what I’d expected in terms of variety, freshness and presentation. ...How staff in the kitchen managed in such a small space is beyond me! Delicious.”

— Ruthann A; Edwardsburg, MI (Alaska 2018)

On the Menu

Early morning sees a passing of the torch. The pastry chef has baked through the wee hours of the morning. After dawn, head chef and sous chefs prepare the hot-from-the-stove portions of the meal. Masters of innovation and improvisation, menus spark with inspiration.

Your galley crew is attentive to ingredients and how food options meld with the activities and conditions of the day. Savory salmon cake starters after an invigorating hike. Belly-warming soups follow a chilly glacier adventure. Cool ceviche, a fresh palate-pleaser in tropical climes. At mealtimes, there are vegetarian, meat, and fish options. If you can't decide, try a sampling—just ask for half-and-half!

— Sample Breakfast Menu —

Avocado toast topped with pesto, grilled tomato, poached eggs & red pepper sabayon • Prosciutto, asparagus & goat cheese omelet • Banana pecan pancakes • Sweet potato hash • Sausage, bacon, ham • Fresh baked pastries

— Sample Dinner Menu —

Field greens with fresh raspberries, caramelized chevre & champagne roasted shallot vinaigrette

Fresh-baked rosemary focaccia finished with apricot & sweet onion glaze

Baked Alaskan halibut & lemon thyme infused compound butter

— or —

Roasted garlic pork medallions with braised apples & tarragon cream sherry reduction

— or —

Summer squash Napoleon layered with crumbled boursin & pomegranate balsamico

Cinnamon poached pear with puff pastry & salted caramel

Wetting Your Whistle

The vibe depends on the vessel. Your setting might be reminiscent of a neighborhood pub, intimate wine bar, or upscale lounge. Specialty coffee and teas are always available. Wines tend to come from Washington and Oregon, but impressive international wines are also available. Most of our boats feature sustainable cask wines on a rotating tap.

Behind the bar you'll find premium and small batch, craft spirits. Along with cocktails mixed with seasonal, local ingredients, house-made mixers, and cordials, even some house-infused spirits (like a cucumber vodka or gin). The UnCruise Bloody Mary mix is popular, too (guests line up for the stuff). Call us cocky, but we're confident that we can hang our hat on having the best craft bars afloat!

And while the occasional tastings do pop up, the nature of most bartenders is that of a tinkerer. Inspiration can come from the unique experiences of the day, the wilderness explored, or stories from hearty explorers—Lewis & Clark, John Muir, and you. With a specialty cocktail of the day, creativity is always shaking—or stirred. So drink up! Fine wines, spirits, and microbrews served on board are included in your fare.

“Did not expect a new creative drink every night! Wonderful usage of local ingredients!”

— Jeanine R; Ft. Knox, KY (Alaska 2018)

The Fleet

Much like members of any family, each small ship in the fleet has its own character and is different from its siblings; yet each is comfortable and inviting. Your home away from home.

Designed for action and bringing the outside in, their shallow drafts mean access to places bigger ships can't go. All cabins are outside (either the window faces the water or one step through the door and you are out in the fresh air).

From a kayak launch platform, swim step, or activity-launch in tow, to a lodge-like feel with creature comforts (no internet and most guests don't miss it), each of our ships is there to deliver.

Wilderness Adventurer

60 Guests / 27 Crew / 30 Cabins / Length 160'

Like your favorite, hippie-cool aunt, she's sage, soulful, and game for every adventure—and likely the one leading the charge. The unassuming Wilderness Adventurer has style and all the amenities needed to get the job done. It's just as comfortable moseying into the lounge for a pint as it is leaping from the fantail for a polar plunge or sketching a landscape from the sun deck.

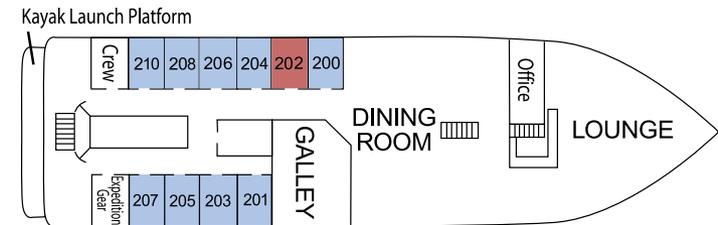

No doubt, she lives up to her name. The mantra on board could be: work hard, play hard, relax, repeat. The ship's easy-going, fun-making energy inspires fierce loyalty by her crew and guests alike.

Wilderness Discoverer

76 Guests / 28 Crew / 38 Cabins / Length 176'

Inviting, and oh so cared for by her crew, the Wilderness Discoverer delivers big adventure with top-of-the-class style. She has Alaska in her soul—and a beautiful bar top and tap tower made from a yellow cedar log found in Peril Strait. But looks aside, she doesn't hold back when it comes to exploration.

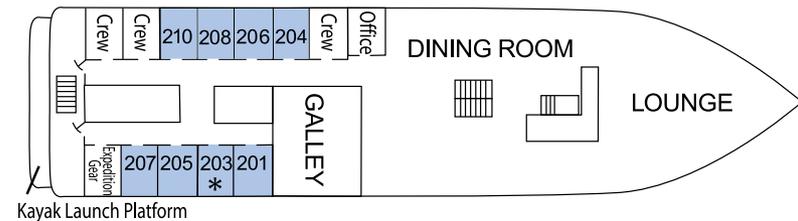

Her shoal draft allows access to waters that are off-limits to bigger boats, where she can slip right in. An instigator of action, she was the first "Wilderness" boat in the family and set us on a path toward greater adventures—you will be, too.

Wilderness Explorer

74 Guests / 28 Crew / 37 Cabins / Length 186'

Daring and ambitious, and a wee bit salty. The Wilderness Explorer was destined for Alaska's deep waters from the first moment she slid into the drink. As mariners say, she's tough—a strong "sea boat" with feet, who's not bashful or apologetic in her unflinching drive to seek out secret niches.

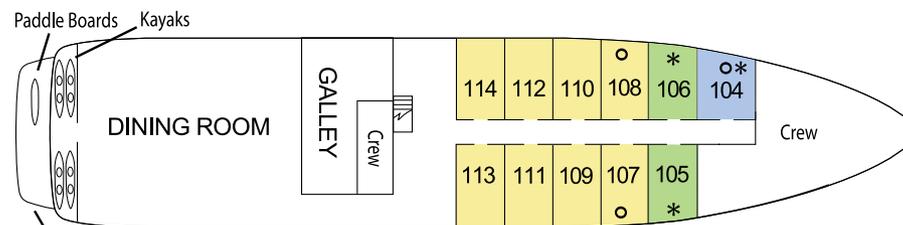

Embracing change, the crew is known to try the untried—whether it's a new anchorage, gaining access to an unexplored trail, or a creative new recipe with local ingredients. Get to know her, and she'll warm your heart.

Safari Voyager

66 Guests / 30 Crew / 34 Cabins / Length 174'

Discreet, sleek, and stealthy, the Safari Voyager is comfortable in warm water regions and built to handle humidity and heat. Tropical adventure, wilderness access, and the natural landscape are always at the forefront. A seamless extension of the places she sails, the ship and her mostly local crew exude pura vida (pure life).

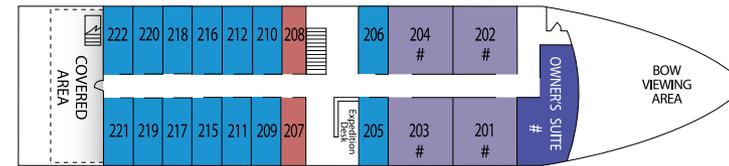

Handcrafted artwork throughout the vessel pays homage to the regions of Latin America. Casual in nature, the Safari Voyager is a bit of a show-off, too—take in 270-degree views from the top deck or window-to-window lounge.

Safari Endeavour

88 Guests / 35 Crew / 44 Cabins / Length 232'

Polished, unwavering, and upscale, the Safari Endeavour may be the workhorse of the fleet but it's her zest-for-life persona that's remembered most. She looks sharp—a nod to the crew who work hard to keep her that way. Always reliable, the crew takes great pride in their ship and the teamwork that keeps her running smoothly.

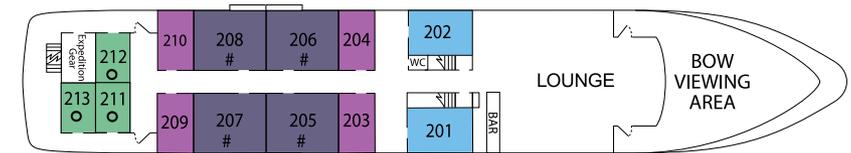

No other UnCruise ship covers more territory, and like her namesake, Captain Cook's Endeavour, both the ship and crew are true explorers. Her roomy lounge, dining room, and sun deck are undisputed, but this boat claims to have the biggest heart, too.

90 Guests / 35 Crew / 45 Cabins / Length 192'

The one-of-a-kind Legacy sails to the farthest reaches spinning yarns of adventure along the way. Like the crew and guests having the time of their lives, she hums with each new opportunity. It's no wonder that for many of the crew (and office folk), she's a first love that never fades.

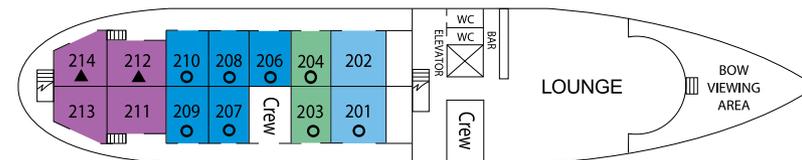

Equipped with kayaks, paddle boards and skiffs, and in Alaska, the Sea Dragon—her launch pad to adventure. She is ready for exploration, and has the most spacious viewing decks in the fleet. Wherever she sails, she announces her arrival with the blow of a whistle.

Agile, spry, and with clean design lines, the Safari Quest can cut into the tiniest nooks that even our other small ships can't reach. This includes coveted wilderness areas with highly limited access. For those most special adventures, she is the ticket in.

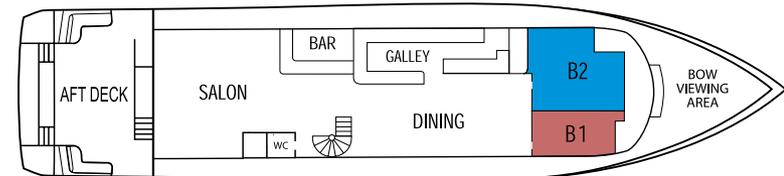

While small is her secret for access, on the inside this yacht is anything but. Spacious and comfy cabins. A cozy and welcoming lounge and dining room. And plenty of onboard niches for nestling and relaxing. Feel the love.

Safari Explorer

36 Guests / 15 Crew / 18 Cabins / Length 145'

This high-end SUV of a ship is nimble, strong, and loving. Her performance-built rugged construction means access to faraway regions. But it's what's on the inside that makes this yacht the prize of the fleet. And with only 36 guests on board, the feel is decidedly exclusive.

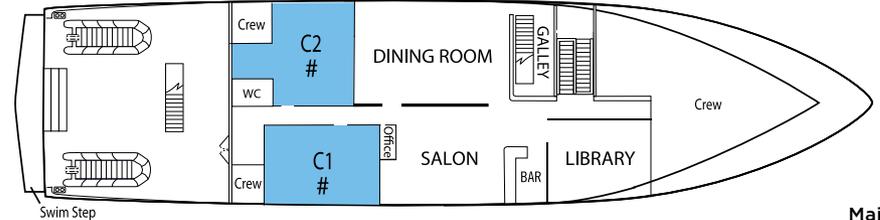

Lovingly called "the Bulldog," she's poised, her interior is a pearl, and the general mood is down-to-earth. A protective spirit is infused in every part of the ship, and within the crew. She's made for adventures after all and with them comes inevitable fun and folly.

Elegant and sophisticated, La Pinta would steal the show anywhere less impressive. Instead, she's the perfect complement to one of the world's greatest environments. Floor-to-ceiling windows in the lounge showcase the views. An outdoor Sky Bar and sun deck, and décor that nods to the nautical.

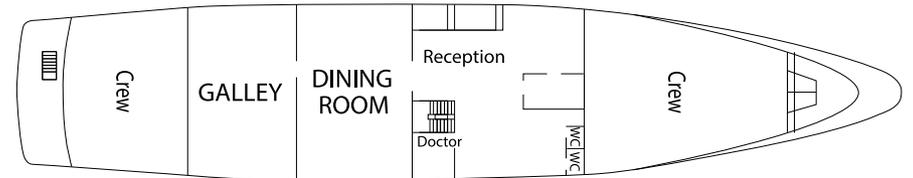

Geared up for adventure play and wildlife, the yacht also has a fun-to-explore natural history library. Her Ecuadorian crew exudes friendliness fueled by pride in their vessel, the Galápagos Islands, and a desire to share them both. Some things are too good to keep secret.

Sustainable Adventures

Destinations remote and scenic call out to be explored. Water and mountains. Beaches and jungles. Fjords rimmed by granite cliffs. Vibrant reefs with tropical fish. We travel and connect—with the people we meet, the places we visit, and the natural world. Personal experiences weave emotional connections into our lives. We watch our step, change course, and take care to leave no trace.

We support the well-being of the people and the places we visit because we:

- Purchase local food and supplies
- Partner with locals for tours and services
- Reduce waste, buy bulk, and recycle
- Don't use bottled water—reusable water bottles provided on board
- Practice fuel conservation and emission reduction
- Monitor water quality and use desalinating watermakers
- Respect wildlife and keep proper distance
- Serve only sustainable seafood in partnership with Monterey Bay Aquarium's Seafood Watch program

We care now for the future.

“There is an aspect of this that is more educational and eco-awareness-raising than I anticipated. I am so glad that UnCruise exists!”

Rewards

You're part of the family. Through our UnCruiser loyalty program, you receive exclusive savings on future cruises, referral incentives (for you AND your friends), and more.

Next Adventure Savings—before you disembark, choose to UnCruise again and lock in exclusive savings. You won't need to choose a destination, date, or vessel yet, just place a deposit on a future booking before you bid farewell. It's as easy as that—even when you opt to charter a vessel and have your run of the ship.

Loyalty Savings—another cool perk to take advantage of. You earn more after every UnCruise. And once you've sailed three times, you've gone Beyond the Buoy (a more personalized level of benefit options added to the mix).

Refer-A-Friend Savings—don't forget to spread the word. As our ambassador, both you and your friends save. Because that's what friends are for.

Be in the know—with quarterly e-newsletters and unforgettable memories. We keep you up to date on goings-on around the office and the ships.

“It's like an adult summer camp with all the great friends you didn't know you had.”

— Jim M; Baltimore, MD (Costa Rica & Panamá 2019)

What's Included

What most defines your experience. Adventures, activities, and excursions. Narration and guides. Handcrafted meals and baked-fresh-daily pastries*. Wine, beer, spirits, and non-alcoholic beverages. Once you step aboard, there's little need to reach for your wallet, except for the occasional souvenir and crew tips to show your gratitude at the end of your cruise.

Every cruise fare includes:

- Exclusive activities*, shore excursions, presentations
- Entry fees to national parks, preserves, and monuments
- Narration and expertise from expedition guides
- Meet/greet services, transfers, and baggage handling (between airport/vessel on embark/disembark days)
- Onboard meals
- Spirits, wine, and microbrews
- Non-alcoholic beverages
- Wellness amenities: hot tub*, fitness equipment, and yoga mats

Cruise fares do not include:

- Port taxes/fees (amount varies by itinerary)
- Gratuities to your vessel crew
- Airfare to and from your home city
- Optional travel protection

*Baked fresh daily pastries not available on Galápagos cruise. Charge applies to snorkeling in Alaska; available on select ships only. Hot tub not available in Hawaii or Latin America.

Gratuities

Gratuities are shared among crew members and are not included in your fare. Recommended amounts available on request.

Final Travel Details

All travel information is sent via email. If your reservation is paid in full and we have received your required online Guest Forms, Final Travel Details will be issued approximately 45 days prior to your departure. Submit all required Guest Forms online no later than 60 days prior to your departure. Late receipt of online Guest Forms and/or Final Payment will delay your Final Travel Details.

Family Discoveries Program

Children ages 8-13 years (at time of travel) save $500 per child. Age guidelines are waived on all private charters. It is the responsibility of parents or guardians to supervise their children at all times.

Smoking

Smoking is allowed only in designated areas on outside aft decks. Smoking is not allowed inside the vessels at any time.

Health and Disability Requirements

Guests must notify us in writing at the time of booking of any physical or mental illness, disability or other conditions for which special accommodations or the use of a wheelchair is necessary or contemplated. We must also be notified of any medical treatment that may render the guest unfit for travel or constitute a risk or danger to the guest or anyone else on board. Guests needing any form of assistance and those who are physically disabled must be accompanied by someone who takes full responsibility for any needed assistance during the cruise and in the event of an emergency. We reserve the right to refuse passage to anyone who, in our sole opinion, may affect the health, safety, or enjoyment of other guests.

Guests requiring a wheelchair must provide their own collapsible wheelchair. Some ports of call, shore excursions, docks, gangways, and other ship requirements may preclude a wheelchair guest from leaving the vessel; this decision will be made by the captain and is binding. Additionally, there may be certain physical conditions, including raised doorway thresholds from 2 to 16 inches, stairways, and narrow passageways within the vessel that may limit or preclude the accessibility of wheelchair guests to some areas.

Due to the limitations of vessel facilities, bookings cannot be accepted for women who will be 30 or more weeks pregnant at the conclusion of travel. Women in their third trimester (greater than 24 weeks, but less than 30 weeks) must submit a letter from their physician granting permission to travel by boat (and for air travel, if applicable).

Non-Discrimination Notification Under Title VI, Title IX

It is the policy of InnerSea Discoveries Alaska, Inc.
