Jewels of the West Coast - Itinerary

Day 1. Broome, Western Australia. Embarkation.

Located in the northwest of the Kimberley region and in the far north of Western Australia, the town of Broome is reputed for its history and its glorious pearling era. Broome is famous for the “Staircase to the Moon”, an optical illusion created by the Moon reflecting on the sand banks at low tide, like a staircase climbing up towards the sky, a unique spectacle provided by nature.

Day 2-3. Rowley Shoals Marine Park, Western Australia.

Regarded as one of the world’s most spectacular diving and snorkelling locations, the Rowley Shoals lie 260 kilometres west of Broome in the Timor Sea. The three coral atolls of Mermaid, Clerke and Imperieuse reefs rise, near vertical, from the surrounding crystal-clear waters on the edge of the continental shelf. The shallow lagoons inhabited by a diverse array of corals and abundant marine life are ideal for exploration by snorkellers and divers. To take full advantage of the location, your ship will spend one and a half days at the Rowley Shoals, allowing you to swim and snorkel from your Zodiac®.

Day 4. Burrup Peninsular, Dampier, Western Australia.

Murujuga National Park and the islands of the Dampier Archipelago showcase what is thought to be the highest concentration of rock engravings of any known site in the world. The sacred rock art’s traditional custodians are the Ngarluma-Yindjibarndi, the Yaburara-Mardudhunera and the Woon-goo-tt-oo. You will have the opportunity to visit Deep Gorge with a traditional custodian guide and marvel at the petroglyphs up close.

Day 5. Montebello Islands, Western Australia.

Located off the Pilbara Coast 120km west of Dampier, the Montebello Islands Marine Park covers more than 58,000 hectares of ocean and over 250 low-lying limestone islands and islets. The flat limestone islands range in size from Hermite, the largest, at about 1,000 ha, to several small islets and rocks of less than one hectare. They are the remnants of an old coastal landform and have been separated from the mainland for more than 8,000 years. The area is rich in natural marine diversity and human history. You will have the opportunity to explore the marine park with our fleet of Zodiacs®.

Day 6. Ningaloo Coast World Heritage Area, Western Australia.

The Ningaloo Coast is a place of stark and spectacular contrast, between lush and colourful scenery beneath the surface of the Indian Ocean in Ningaloo Marine Park and the rugged, arid land of Cape Range National Park. Ningaloo Reef is an idyllic location to snorkel in clear turquoise waters and immerse yourself in marine life encounters. You will have the opportunity to swim and snorkel on the largest fringing coral reef in Australia and the only large reef in the world found so close to a continental land mass, making it an easy snorkel from shore.

Day 7. Monkey Mia, Shark Bay World Heritage Area, Western Australia.

The shallow and mostly protected bays of the Shark Bay World Heritage Area are home to over 10,000 dugongs. Wild bottlenose dolphins visit the shore at Monkey Mia Reserve, creating one of Australia’s best-known wildlife experiences. You may also see sharks, rays, turtles and a variety of fish in the water. You will have the opportunity to experience the wild bottlenose dolphins early in the morning before exploring the area’s natural and cultural history along the Wulyibidi Yaninyina trail.

Day 8. Dirk Hartog Island, Shark Bay, Western Australia.

With its white, sandy beaches, turquoise waters, rust-red sand dunes and abundant wildlife, Shark Bay became Western Australia’s first World Heritage listed area in 1991. The colourful and diverse landscapes, rare fauna and flora, and world class examples of Earth’s ecological processes are what qualify Shark Bay for World Heritage listing, making it a truly remarkable place. You will land at Dampier’s landing before being transferred to Cape Inscription where in 1616 Dirk Hartog left evidence of his landing in the form of a pewter plate inscribed with details of his journey.

Day 9. Abrolhos Islands Marine Park, Western Australia.

Formerly known as Houtman Abrolhos, these Indian Ocean jewels sit just 60 kilometres west of Geraldton. The Abrolhos Islands Marine Park consists of three main clusters of islands that stretch from north to south across 100 kilometres of ocean, and includes the Wallabi Group, Easter Group and Pelsaert Group. Established as a marine park in 1983, the waters of the Abrolhos are famous for colourful coral, crystal clear waters and large breeding colonies of seabirds. You will have the opportunity to explore East Wallabi Island and its fringing reefs onboard a Zodiac®.

Day 10. Jurien Bay Marine Park, Western Australia.

Jurien Bay Marine Park surrounds dozens of ecologically important islands that contain rare and endangered animals found nowhere else in the world. The marine park and its immediate surrounds is the only major breeding area for Australian sea lions along the western coast of Australia. It is also a primary breeding ground for seabirds and is populated with a mix of temperate and tropical plants and animals, courtesy of the Leeuwin Current. You will have the opportunity to explore the marine park with our fleet of Zodiacs®.

Day 11. Fremantle, Western Australia. Disembarkation.
