A WORLD WAITING TO BE EXPLORED

CRUISE
Traveller

ABOUT US

At Fred. Olsen, we're a little different to the bigger cruise lines, and proudly so. Cruising, to us, is about enjoying the journey and seeing the world in comfort and style. It's also about choice – the freedom to explore your way. It's travel at its most rewarding: unhurried, carefully considered and full of character.

SMALLER SHIPS, REFINED TRADITIONS

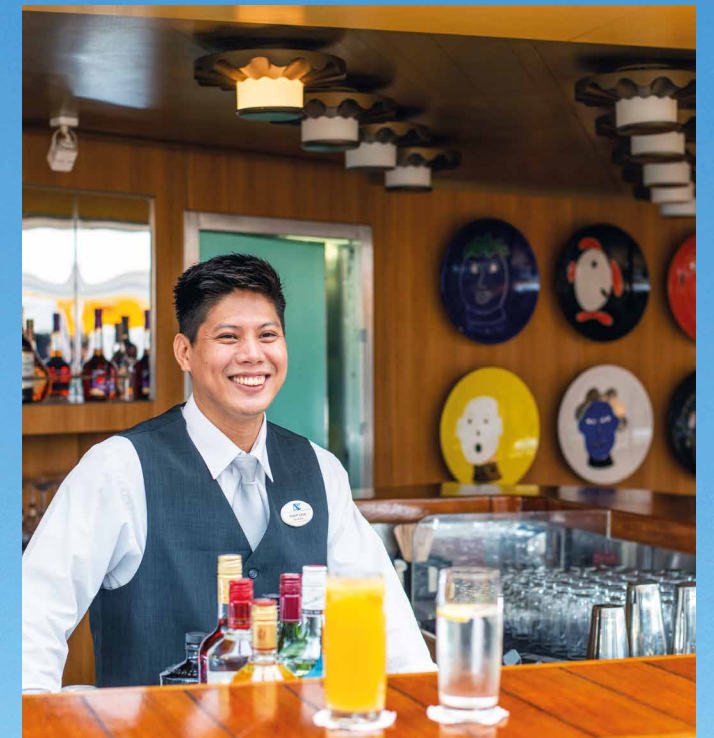

Our ships are smaller, warmer and full of charm. With space to relax and thoughtful touches throughout, they offer a more personal way to cruise. We've preserved the timeless pleasures of sea travel, but shaped them for today, with comfort, character and a relaxed sense of occasion.

SERVICE WITH GENUINE WARMTH

What sets us apart is our crew. From the moment you step on board, you'll be greeted with warmth, care and a level of attention that's genuine. They take the time to get to know you, from your name to your favourite drink.

ALWAYS IN THE BEST OF COMPANY

Our story began in Norway, where time on the water is part of daily life. It's a heritage we're proud of, one that shapes our respect for the sea, our love of exploration and the warm welcome you'll find on board. We live by the saying 'i det beste selskap' – 'in the best of company' – and that's precisely how we want you to feel when you sail with us: relaxed, valued and part of something truly special.

MORE TO ENJOY, MORE INCLUDED

We want your journey to feel truly special. That's why our cruises include all the essentials you'll need, along with thoughtful extras to enhance your time on board – and the freedom to personalise it even further with optional upgrades, from elevated dining experiences to unforgettable Shore Tours.

5th January 2028 • Sail from Southampton
87 nights • Borealis • Cruise code S2801

Adults
Only

Bringing together some of the world's most awe-inspiring places, this extraordinary voyage marks our return to the Amazon for the first time in nine years and, as the only cruise line sailing there from the UK, offers a rare way to experience this remarkable destination. Time ashore brings you closer to lush rainforest, with toucans, butterflies, monkeys and pink river dolphins among the wildlife to look out for. Then your journey brings you to the Antarctic Peninsula, one of our most popular and memorable sailing regions, where scenic cruising showcases vast glaciers and snow-topped mountains, and there's a chance to spot penguins and whales. Elsewhere, Costa Rica is rich in tropical wildlife and nature, Buenos Aires pulses with the rhythm of tango, Rio is home to icons like Sugarloaf Mountain, and the Caribbean combines island-hopping with whale-watching in the hotspots of Samaná Bay and Dominica.

IN SEARCH OF THE NORTHERN LIGHTS

28th February 2027 • Sail from Southampton
14 nights • Balmoral • Cruise code L2705

Timed for one of the best periods to witness the Northern Lights, this two-week voyage into the Arctic offers the chance to fulfil one of travel's most magical ambitions. With skies often clearer than in midwinter, conditions can be ideal for glimpsing nature's colourful, dancing display. After crossing the Arctic Circle – a memorable experience in itself – two days in Narvik provide time to explore and perhaps join an evening tour in search of the aurora. Elsewhere, try winter activities such as tobogganing or husky sledding through snowy landscapes. Scenic cruising takes you past the striking Seven Sisters Mountain Range and the remarkable Torghatten Mountain, with its distinctive hole carved through the centre.

Prices from £1,699pp, twin share in an Interior Cabin

ICONS OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

18th November 2027 • Sail from Southampton
16 nights • Bolette • Cruise code T2734

This journey offers the chance to see some of Europe's most celebrated sights, from ancient cities to grand landmarks, at a time of year when cooler days and fewer crowds make exploring comfortable. The iconic Rock of Gibraltar offers panoramic Atlantic views, before Barcelona reveals Gaudi's unmistakable style, from elegant avenues to La Sagrada Familia. Civitavecchia is your gateway to Rome and its icons, including the Colosseum and the Vatican, while La Spezia places you within reach of Cinque Terre's pastel-hued cliffside villages or Pisa's famous Leaning Tower. Sailing beneath the 25 April Bridge brings a scenic arrival into Lisbon, passing the Belém Tower and the Discoveries Monument, and inviting further exploration ashore.

Prices from £1,699pp, twin share in an Interior Cabin

AUTUMN FJORDS OF NORWAY

21st September 2027 • Sail from Southampton
9 nights • Balmoral • Cruise code L2728

Combine breathtaking scenery with exploration as you uncover Norway's iconic fjords under the soft glow of autumn. Balmoral's smaller size allows access to waterways beyond the reach of larger ships, including Lysefjord, home to the famous Pulpit Rock, and Åkrafjord, where a scenic diversion reveals the tumbling Langfoss Waterfall. More dramatic views unfold when cruising Nordfjord into Olden, and Lustrafjord – an arm of Norway's longest fjord, Sognefjord – leading to Skjolden, the country's innermost fjord port. Ashore, nature takes centre stage: hike to the foot of the blue-ice Briksdal Glacier, kayak across glassy waters framed by mountains, and ride the Loen Skyline to Mount Hoven for sweeping fjordland panoramas.

Prices from £1,199pp, twin share in an Interior Cabin

HAMBURG CHRISTMAS MARKETS & HONFLEUR

17th December 2027 • Sail from Southampton
5 nights • Borealis • Cruise code S2723

Adults
Only

Festive flavours and Christmas market charm await on this short getaway to France and Germany. After a relaxed call to Honfleur, where colourful half-timbered buildings frame the harbour and regional specialities range from Calvados to Camembert, you'll continue to Hamburg. Renowned for its atmospheric Christmas markets, you'll have a full day to browse traditional wooden huts, strung with twinkling lights and filled with handcrafted gifts, and sample treats such as bratwurst, roasted chestnuts and lebkuchen, perhaps with a warming glühwein. Away from the stalls, there's the chance to join a harbour cruise on the River Elbe for a different view of the city. Back on board, the seasonal feeling continues with decorations, entertainment and cosy days at sea.

Prices from £649pp, twin share in an Interior Cabin
