When everyday life is left behind on the shore. Welcome to VIVA Cruises.

Peace and quiet, a slowing of pace and countless unique moments – traveling on a river is more than just a vacation. Because passing riverside landscapes, new towns and hidden villages, pure relaxation and outstanding cuisine make a river cruise a true experience. We make sure of this not only with our modern fleet and friendly crew, but also with exceptional destinations and excursions that delve into the heart of the regions we travel through.

For the second year in a row, our PORTO MIRANTE will allow you to experience dreamy Portugal from a new perspective, setting off from Porto into the interior of the country and back to the city on the Atlantic. A port wine in the vineyards, a cocktail on the sundeck, or a trip to the "Golden City"? You decide what your personal journey should look like.

New and guaranteed unique: if you'd rather discover beautiful northern Europe instead of basking in the sun and enjoying the southern European lightness, Copenhagen is the place for you.

Andrea Kruse
CEO & Co-Founder VIVA Cruises

Join us on our restored VIVA RUBY from Germany's exciting capital, Berlin, via Szczecin and Greifswald to Stralsund. From there, continue by transfer to the Danish capital – for two nights. Experience Danish “hygge” – the feeling of coziness and well-being that is particularly evident in Copenhagen.

But the classics should not be forgotten, of course. Our new VIVA ENJOY will be welcoming guests on the Danube from May 2026, showing why Vienna, Budapest, and Bratislava are rightly considered among the most beautiful cities in Europe. Our VIVA TWO will also be cruising the Danube, visiting highlights such as the Iron Gates and the Black Sea. Fans of the Rhine, Main, Moselle, and the French Rhône will also get their money's worth. Whether Amsterdam, Avignon, or our home port of Düsseldorf – you'll be spoiled for choice.

ENJOY THE MOMENT!

Travel to experience.

A cruise is unique. Every day a new port, a new city, and time and again, a view of fascinating landscapes in the most beautiful regions of Europe. The best thing about it is that your premium hotel always travels with you – and with it, a crew that knows how to spoil you with exclusive service and exquisite cuisine. With comfort tailored entirely to your rest and recreation. And with a program that shows you eventful routes from a new perspective, this makes every trip a journey of experience and pleasure – and your ship becomes your very own personal retreat.

To travel is to live.

VIVA SUSTAINABILITY

We take responsibility for people, nature, and the river. See for yourself and get to know our philosophy personally.

River-conscious.

Sustainability is a top priority for us.

- responsible route planning to save nautical miles
- use of HVO and GTL fuel, which reduces emissions and helps us to be carbon-neutral
- switching off engines in many ports to use shore power as an alternative
- ship interiors made largely from recycled materials
- avoiding plastic, e. g., by using water dispensers and reusable bottles
- vegetarian and vegan menus as alternatives to meat, with different menus daily
- reduction of noise emissions through the silent ship concept
- reduction of food waste through food through service on the spot and à la minute preparation

CREATE YOUR MOMENT

Organize your excursions entirely as you wish.

How about ...

... a chocolate tasting in Antwerp?

... a tour of Germany's capital, Berlin?

... a hike to Bratislava Castle?

... Belgian beer in Brussels?

... a trip to Schönbrunn Palace in Vienna?

... an evening tour of Porto?

... culture and cuisine in Lyon?

... a vintage car ride through Budapest?

VIVA ENTERTAINMENT

Unique entertainment – on land and on board.

Our lovingly compiled entertainment program is as varied as our routes and destinations. Join us on a journey for all your senses and discover musical highlights with plenty of local flavor.

Have you ever heard of the Tuna Bands? These student street music groups are an integral part of Porto and its surroundings – and on board our PORTO MIRANTE, they bring the infectious Portuguese joie de vivre to life.

A good atmosphere is guaranteed in Belgrade, too. At a typical folklore show, the artists showcase what defines the country and its people. Vienna, on the other hand, has a more classical feel. In one of the world's capitals of music, you can look forward, among other things, to a classical duo that is guaranteed to hit the right note in an elegant atmosphere.

Speaking of classical music, you'll find it in Nuremberg as well – because Oper+ brings a breath of fresh air to the supposedly fusty world of opera, and conjures up an experience on stage (and in the audience) that's not to be missed.

So as you can see, whether it's folklore, opera, vibrant sounds bursting with joie de vivre, or gentle notes on the piano – we have the perfect program for you on board on every cruise. Prepare to be amazed!*

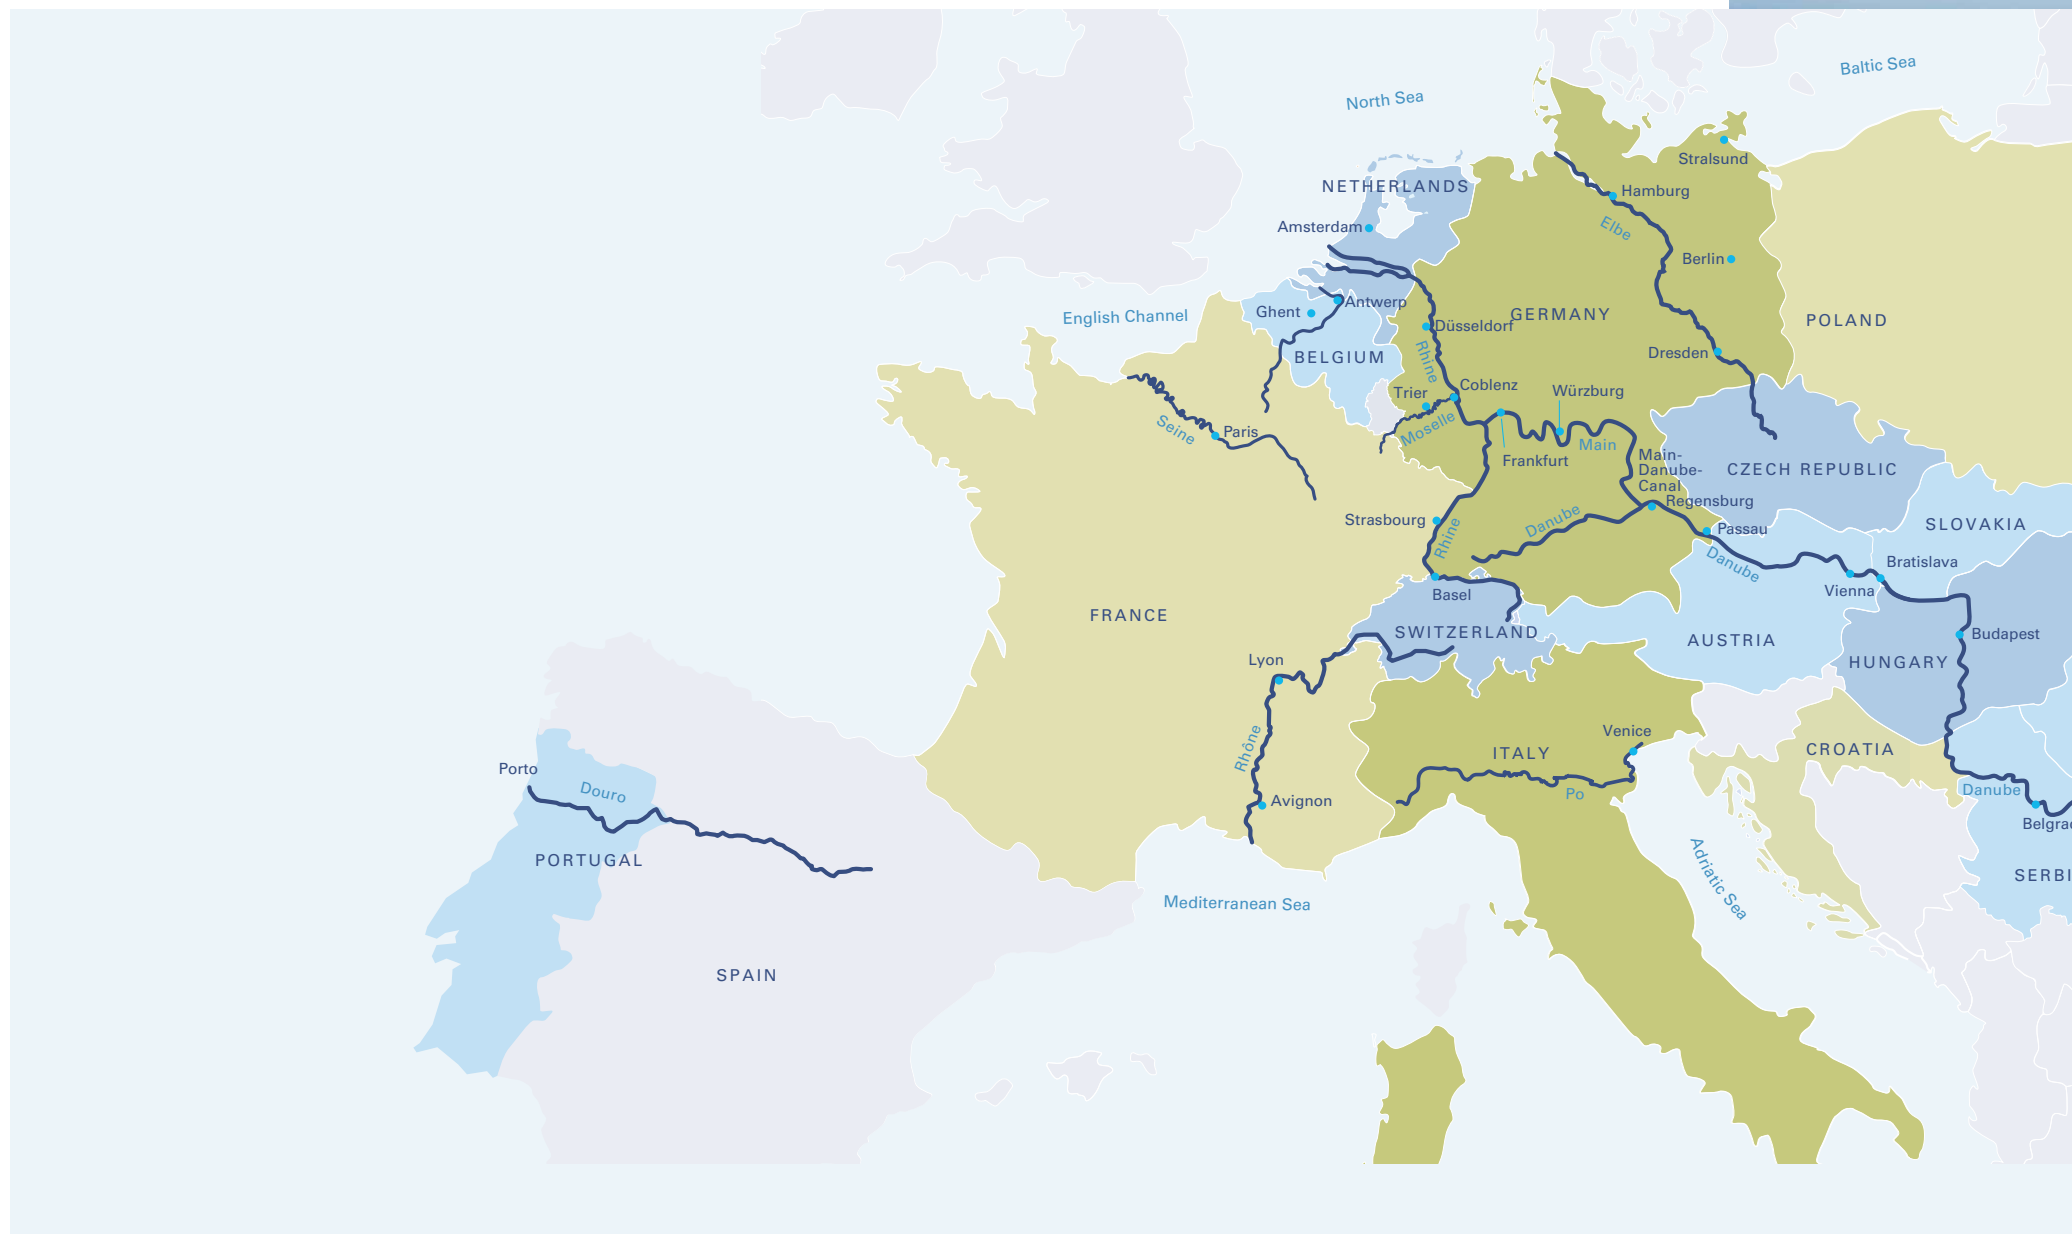

* The program on board may vary depending on departure.

OUR GOURMET CRUISE

VIVA Cruises meets Falstaff in Portugal.

One of the most beautiful corners of Europe, the finest wines and wine tastings at the best addresses, special menus, valuable culinary insights, Michelin-starred restaurants, and simple, yet delicious classics: welcome to our exclusive gourmet river cruise!

Be our guest and join us on an incomparable journey through the culinary delights of Portugal's beautiful Douro Valley. Together with our partner Falstaff, Europe's high-end magazine for connoisseurs, we invite you to enjoy some truly special moments.

It all begins in the coastal city of Porto. Come aboard, unwind, and indulge in pure pleasure. An unforgettable experience for all your senses is already waiting for you!

You will soon find our Gourmet Cruise in our exclusive gourmet brochure or online.

Portugal, and especially the region around the Douro, is a dream for lovers of exclusive cuisine and fine wines! I feel the same way, and I return time after time to this special part of the world to find out what's new and experience classics locally. I'm looking forward to bringing you along and introducing you to the world of wine on our journey together.

ON THE DOURO

Southern European joie de vivre between historic coastal towns, picturesque villages, vineyards and the world-famous port wine.

Discover Portugal in all its facets:

The Douro Valley is not only one of Portugal's most beautiful landscapes, but has also been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2001. Why this is the case quickly becomes clear when the ship leaves the harbor in Porto. There is so much to see and experience on the third longest river on the Iberian Peninsula.

In addition to incredible nature with green river valleys and colorful flora and fauna, the small villages and towns also have a magical attraction for visitors. Explore the narrow alleyways, some decorated with countless colorful tiles, or sample local specialties - one thing is a must: the typical port wine. The Douro Valley is not only one of the country's most important wine regions, but since 1756 has also been home to the oldest wine-growing region in the world, also the region of origin of the famous port wine.

Treasures of the Douro

Tradition, history, and natural beauty come together here. From Porto, the lively coastal city full of charm and history, the Douro meanders through a landscape of terraced vineyards and picturesque villages. Discover the rich traditions of the region, from the world-famous port wine to the centuries-old customs that live on in small towns such as Régua and Pinhão.

In Pocinho, the Douro reveals its untamed side, surrounded by steep hills and impressive views that touch the soul. Along the route, historic towns and authentic villages invite you to experience Portuguese joie de vivre and hospitality. Back in Porto, the vibrant heart of the region awaits you—a perfect end to this unforgettable journey through the traditions and beauties of the Douro Valley.

EXCURSIONS

VEGA TERRÓN: SALAMANCA SOJOURN

Duration: 9,0 hours

Transport: on foot - bus

Difficulty: moderate

Join us on a day trip to Salamanca – the "Golden City" – whose impressive, honey-colored sandstone architecture will immediately enchant you. Learn all about the rich history of this city, which is particularly famous for its renowned university. It remains one of the oldest in the world and is considered a vibrant center of knowledge and culture. The high proportion of students, constituting about a fifth of the population, brings energy to Salamanca, making it one of the liveliest cities in the country.

During a guided tour, you will discover its most beautiful corners and most interesting stories. A guaranteed highlight is the magnificent cathedral, an outstanding example of this city's rich heritage. After the guided tour, you will have plenty of time to explore Salamanca's charm on your own and stroll through its picturesque streets.

PORTO: PORTO EXPLORATION

Duration: 4,0 hours

Transport: on foot - bus

Difficulty: moderate

Begin your journey of discovery through the fascinating city of Porto by admiring the impressive Dom Luís I Bridge – an architectural masterpiece that connects both banks of the Douro River and offers spectacular views of the old town. See the imposing Porto Cathedral, a Romanesque structure dating back to the 12th and 13th centuries, proudly overlooking the city. From there, a walk leads you into the historic old town, characterized by narrow alleys, colorful houses, and the unique charm that makes Porto so special. A true highlight is the visit to São Bento Station, where magnificent azulejos – traditional hand-painted tiles – depict scenes from Portugal's rich history. Along the way, you'll also pass the striking Clérigos Tower, an 18th-century landmark that still dominates the city skyline. The tour concludes with a visit to a traditional port wine cellar in Vila Nova de Gaia, located just across the Douro. Here, you'll gain fascinating insights into the history and production of Portugal's most famous wine – naturally followed by a tasting. A memorable excursion that perfectly blends history, culture, and enjoyment.

ON THE RHINE, MAIN AND MOSELLE

Pure variety between medieval towns, Dutch design, shopping streets and the romantic Rhineland landscape.

Three of Europe's most beautiful rivers from a unique perspective:

Sprawling vineyards, idyllic villages, and vibrant cities could not be more varied, and this is precisely what makes these special regions so appealing. Whether on Germany's longest river, along traditional windmills in the Netherlands or with a view of the famous Lorelei, the mystical rock formation on the Rhine – the Rhine, Main, and Moselle offer a variety of cultural and culinary highlights.

Cities such as Coblenz, Mainz, and Cochem enchant visitors with their historic architecture and charming old towns. In contrast, the rural areas offer peaceful nature and villages where time seems to stand still. The Upper Middle Rhine Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is particularly impressive with its majestic beauty and the medieval castles that adorn its banks.

A fascinating alternation of urban vibrancy and tranquil idyll, right in the heart of Europe.

Discover Passau by bike

Start in Passau's old town, crossing the impressive Inn Bridge, past the Roman Museum at Boiotro Fort, through the Severinstor gate, and past St. Severin's church and the cemetery in the direction of Ingling.

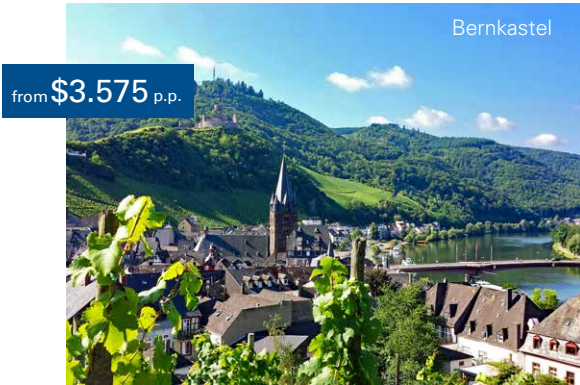

From there, follow the Inn and you soon reach charming Wernstein, where the majestic Neuburg Castle towers over the town. After a short ride, you reach Schärding, known for the colorful Silberzeile, which dominates the townscape. From there, cycle over the Old Inn Bridge to Neuhaus, where it's worth taking a look at Neuhaus Castle, now a secondary school of the English Ladies. The route continues to Vornbach, where the former Benedictine Abbey of Maria Hilf and the cemetery church of St. Martin are particular highlights.

The tour finally takes you to the impressive five-towered complex of Neuburg Castle, before returning to Passau after a total of 35 km.

Wine on every corner

A true classic, yet never boring, the Moselle is known for its breathtaking landscapes characterized by charming villages, historic castles, and steep vineyards.

And the latter already give away the fact that the region is an absolute paradise for wine lovers, where some of the best Rieslings in the world thrive. The wine tradition dates back to Roman times and is still cultivated with passion and dedication today. On a visit to the Moselle, not only can you taste exquisite wines, but also experience the art of winemaking at first hand. A perfect combination of relaxation and enjoyment – on board and on shore.

Art and Culture

Basel, Switzerland's third largest city, is not only the starting point and destination of our cruises, but is also known for its rich culture, impressive architecture and vibrant art scene. Picturesquely situated at the border triangle of Germany, France, and Switzerland, it offers a unique blend of different cultures and traditions.

One of Basel's highlights is the old town, which delights visitors with its well-preserved medieval buildings and charming alleyways. The imposing Basel Minster not only offers a breathtaking view of the Rhine, but is also a symbol of the city and a Gothic masterpiece. Speaking of Gothic, Basel is a dream come true for art lovers. The city is home to numerous museums, including the world-famous art museum, which presents an impressive collection of masterpieces from various eras.

Ahoy, Coblenz!

Coblenz is more than just an historic city in south-west Germany. It's where the Rhine flows into the Moselle at what is known as the "Deutsches Eck" – forever watched over by the 37 meter high monument to Kaiser Wilhelm I, which has been part of the UNESCO World Heritage site, the "Upper Middle Rhine Valley", since 2002.

Get to know this fantastic region by sailing along the Rhine from Strasbourg towards Coblenz, or use Coblenz as the ideal starting point for a tour of the Moselle, which is steeped in history, along breathtaking landscapes of rolling hills, magnificent vineyards, and medieval castles.

Rhine moments

The Rhine is not only one of the longest rivers in Europe, but also, for us, one of the most beautiful. So it's only natural that you, too, should get a taste of this unique waterway.

How about a trip between Düsseldorf and Basel, passing through the Lorelei Passage and past cultural gems such as Strasbourg, Rüdesheim, and Königswinter? There's also plenty to discover between Basel and the Dutch capital: in addition to Coblenz, Speyer and Cologne are also on the itinerary.

The Moselle is without a doubt my absolute favorite route. The region is simply beautiful, harmonious, and, in my eyes, perfect. Especially at the right time of year—for me, it's the end of summer, when the leaves are slowly changing color and you can see the wine-makers working among the vines. Then there are the small wine-growing villages, the down-to-earth inhabitants, and the pretty half-timbered houses. My tip for a visit is to see the city of Trier, which in my opinion, is completely underrated. The "Rome of the North" is definitely worth exploring, as it boasts an incredible number of historical highlights that every guest should see.

Ons' Lieve Heer op Solder

A real insider tip for anyone who wants to discover Amsterdam away from the well-known sights, The Museum Ons' Lieve Heer opSolder ("Our Dear Lord in the Attic") is one of the most extraordinary museums in Amsterdam. Hidden in the attic of an unremarkable 17th century canal house is a fully preserved Catholic church. It was built at a time when public Catholic services were prohibited in the Netherlands. Today, not only can visitors marvel at the impressive chapel, but also explore the living quarters of this former merchant's house, which have been furnished in the original style. The museum offers a fascinating insight into religious tolerance and everyday life during the Golden Age.

Underrated but worth discovering

Nestled in the idyllic southwest of Germany, Mannheim has a lot to offer. Make the most of your day and explore the city from its most charming angles.

How about starting your morning with a visit to Mannheim Palace? This Baroque palace is one of the largest in Europe and invites you to take a leisurely stroll through its beautiful palace garden.

For those with an artistic flair, don't miss the renowned Kunsthalle. Considered one of Germany's most significant art museums, it houses an extensive collection ranging from classical modernism to contemporary pieces.

Next, take a walk along the Rhine promenade – and why not stop by one of the many cafés and restaurants? Be sure to try "Mannemer Eck," a sweet pastry and a true regional classic.

As the day winds down, head to the Stadtgarten for a great view of the illuminated Water Tower. Enjoy the Moment!

DORDRECHT: UNESCO-ERBE KINDERDIJK

Duration: 4,0 hours

Transport: on foot - bus

Difficulty: challenging

Kinderdijk, a UNESCO World Heritage Site in the Netherlands, is famous for its iconic network of 19 windmills built in the 18th century. These windmills are a testament to Dutch engineering and water management technologies developed to control flooding in the low-lying polder landscape. Visitors to Kinderdijk can explore this unique area, learning more about the history and technology of the windmills while enjoying the scenic beauty of the surrounding waterways and meadows. The site stands as a symbol of the Netherlands' ongoing battle with water and the innovative solutions to preserve habitable land.

A scenic view of a canal in Breisach, France, with half-timbered houses and a boat. The canal is narrow and calm, reflecting the sky and the buildings. On the left, a large half-timbered house with a balcony is visible. On the right, a row of colorful houses with flower boxes under the windows lines the canal. A small boat with several people is in the middle of the canal. The sky is a mix of blue and orange, suggesting sunset or sunrise.

Is there anything better than cruising along the river in the summer? Not for me. Warm temperatures, a cold drink on the sun deck, and a new destination every day. One of the highlights for me in 2026 is definitely our 12-night journey from Basel to Vienna. Along with the big-city vibe, there are stops in Bamberg and Nuremberg - simply beautiful! My tip: A visit to the Ziegler Distillery in Wertheim is a must. During our excursion, you'll learn all about the tradition and techniques behind their premium spirits.

EXCURSIONS

BUDAPEST: VISIT TO THE THERMAL SPRINGS

Duration: 4,5 hours

Transport: on foot - bus

Difficulty: easy

Experience the soothing relaxation of Budapest's famous thermal springs, known for their healing and revitalizing properties. Enjoy the unique atmosphere and immerse yourself in the tradition of thermal baths that have made Budapest one of Europe's leading wellness cities. Note: Please bring a swimsuit and slippers with you for your visit.

VIENNA: THE UPPER BELVEDERE AND ITS MASTERPIECES

Duration: 3,5 hours

Transport: on foot - bus

Difficulty: moderate

Experience Vienna's impressive art and architectural history on a guided visit to the Upper Belvedere, one of the city's most important Baroque palaces. Once the summer residence of Prince Eugene of Savoy, the magnificent complex is now home to one of Austria's most significant art collections. On arrival, you will have the opportunity to explore the splendid rooms of the Upper Belvedere. Admire the palace's impressive architecture as well as its beautiful gardens, which create a harmonious connection to art and nature. The Upper Belvedere houses masterpieces by artists such as Gustav Klimt, Egon Schiele and Oskar Kokoschka. During your visit, you will have the opportunity to discover other outstanding works of Austrian and international art presented in the grand exhibition rooms.

A group of people are gathered outdoors in a vineyard, raising their wine glasses in a toast. The scene is set during the golden hour of sunset, with the sun low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow over the landscape. The people are smiling and looking towards each other. In the background, there are rows of grapevines and rolling hills. In the foreground, a table is partially visible with various food items, including bread, nuts, and fruit.

ON THE RHÔNE

The south of France attracts visitors with unique architecture, fragrant fields of flowers and lavender, orchards and superb cuisine.

A summer in the South of France – doesn't that sound like music to your ears?

Discover the land of haute cuisine from a unique perspective and join us on our journey to the Mediterranean. Our trip begins in Lyon, the third largest city in the country and also known as the “City of Light”. It impresses visitors not only with its imposing buildings, but also with a pretty old town that is just waiting to be discovered.

We continue our travels on the country's most full-flowing river through extensive vineyards and impressive landscapes to the south via Tournon, Viviers and Avignon to Arles and Martigues, before returning to Lyon. Let yourself drift through the small towns, succumb to the charm of the historic architecture, sample classic French cuisine and enjoy France's largest and oldest wine region on land and, of course, on board.

EXCURSIONS

VIVIERS: GORGES OF THE ARDÈCHE AND MUSEUM

Duration: 4 hours

Transport: on foot - bus

Difficulty: moderate

The Ardèche River flows not far from Viviers. Over millennia, the river has carved its way through the limestone cliffs, creating a unique natural spectacle. During the bus ride, breathtaking views of the turquoise-green river open up again and again as it quietly winds its way between jagged boulders and lush green forests. Visit the Lavender Museum and learn more about the plant that transforms Provence into a purple sea of beguiling scents every summer. Multimedia offers a vivid insight into the cultivation and processing of lavender. Numerous photo stops to capture the beautiful landscape of the Gorges of the Ardèche round off the excursion. Don't miss the Pont d'Arc, a natural limestone bridge that connects the two banks.

AVIGNON: PONT DU GARD

Duration: 4 hours

Transport: on foot - bus

Difficulty: moderate

Embark on a fascinating excursion to the Pont du Gard, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the best-preserved Roman aqueducts in the world. This impressive ancient structure, nestled in the beautiful Provençal landscape, is a testament to Roman engineering and architecture. Discover its history, walk across its mighty arches and explore the natural surroundings.

As you stand beneath the towering arches, you will learn about its construction, function, and the incredible engineering skills of the Romans. You'll soon understand why this aqueduct played an important role in the lives of the ancient Romans and why it is still an architectural marvel today. During your free time, you can visit the museum or take a break for a coffee.

ON THE BALTIC SEA, ELBE AND ODER

From North Sea dreams and Eastern magic, from Dresden to Prague and capital city flair from Berlin to Copenhagen: welcome to our culture ship, the VIVA RUBY.

Cultural highlights in Europe's most beautiful regions:

Our VIVA RUBY – freshly restored in 2025 – invites you to discover the Baltic Sea, Elbe, and Oder rivers not only from the ship, but also from a cultural perspective. The latest technical systems and interiors meet timeless elegance and the typical traditional charm our smallest ship effortlessly exudes.

There are only 32 double cabins and 8 new suites, so a maximum of 80 guests have the opportunity to be on board on one of our cruises and explore the east of Germany and the surrounding countries on an exclusive tour. Whether it's an exciting metropolis tour from Berlin via Dresden to Prague, the Hanseatic cities of Bremen and Hamburg, Potsdam and the surrounding area, or the Scandinavian design capital of Copenhagen, you'll be spoiled for choice. By the way, don't miss the world-famous Kiel Week, which takes place every year in June, or the Störtebeker Festival on the island of Rügen. Our VIVA RUBY will take you there. That's pure culture!

Moin Moin, Kiel!

An absolute must in the North German summer is Kiel Week – a world famous maritime festival in the capital of Schleswig-Holstein, which attracts around one million visitors every year. In addition to international sailing competitions on the Baltic Sea, there are plenty of cultural events such as concerts and theater, an international market, and numerous marquees with a folk festival atmosphere.

The absolute highlight is the impressive Windjammer Parade, a tradition for locals and tourists for years. Historic tall ships and numerous other vessels cross the harbor and the Kiel Fjord in an impressive parade.

Kiel Week takes place from 20 - 28 June 2026.

Spectacular natural scenery

Have you ever heard of Klaus Störtebeker? He is considered one of the most notorious pirates of the 14th century, wreaking havoc in the North and Baltic Seas in particular, and became a symbol of resistance against the ruling class.

Today, the famous Störtebeker Festival on the island of Rügen is dedicated to him. This cultural highlight attracts thousands of visitors every year, and invites them into a picturesque setting and the exciting world of Vikings and pirates.

Between royal splendor and modern diversity.

Did you know that a veritable gem lies just outside Berlin? Potsdam is not only the capital of Brandenburg, but also has a lot to offer. Whether history, culture, or nature, the city is best known for its magnificent palaces – including the famous Sanssouci – picturesque lakes and green parkland that invite you to take relaxing strolls.

But the popular Dutch Quarter is also worth a visit. Red brick buildings reminiscent of the well-known architecture of Dutch cities, charming alleyways with boutiques, galleries, and numerous cafés characterize the townscape and invite you to take a long stroll. Savor Dutch nonchalance and the unique atmosphere of Western Europeans in the heart of Brandenburg? Absolutely!

PEENEMÜNDE: USEDOM ISLAND TOUR

Duration: 4 hours

Transport: bus

Difficulty: easy

Your excursion begins in Peenemünde. Passing the Baltic Sea resorts of Karlshagen and Trassenheide, you reach the B111, Usedom's traffic artery. Enjoy the beautiful town of Loddin on the Achterwasser, home to Germany's smallest and northernmost vineyard. The tour continues towards the Imperial Baths, with a stop in Heringsdorf. Learn more about Villa Oechsler and Villa Staudt, Usedom's most beautiful and most famous examples of opulent spa architecture. Stroll along Germany's longest covered pier in Heringsdorf. Whether Lorient, Maxim Gorki, or Theodor Fontane, you will discover the places on the island where famous people lived and worked. On the way back, you will learn more about the Koserow salt huts, experience the Krumminer Wieck, and discover where to find the best frog cake in Germany. We then return to Peenemünde and the ship via many small island villages.

MEISSEN: PORCELAIN & CITY VIBES

Duration: 3 hours

Transport: on foot - bus

Difficulty: moderate

You will first visit the oldest and probably most important porcelain manufactory in the world. A demonstration shows the rich creating of this workshop, from Böttger to the great Baroque works of Kaendler, the services with the onion design, the greap leaves design and the rose design to the Modern times.

Afterwards the bus takes you up to the castle hill where the walking tour starts. Meissen is the nucleus of Saxony, because the Margrave of Meissen became the Electors of Saxony. Of these, however, was the bishop the Lord of Meissen. The imposing dominant over the city, cathedral, Bishop's Palace and Albrechtsburg make that clear. The castle hill is surrounded by a beautiful setting of old buildings from the Gothic and Renaissance. On the square are the late-Gothic town hall, proud middle-class houses and the Church of Our Lady.

- b) The customer shall be responsible for all contractual obligations of fellow passengers for whom he² makes the booking, in the same manner as for his own to the extent that he has assumed this obligation in an express and separate statement.
- c) If the content of the notice of acceptance from VIVA Cruises deviates from the content of the booking, VIVA Cruises is deemed to have made a new offer, by which VIVA Cruises is bound for a period of ten days. The contract is concluded on the basis of this new offer provided that VIVA Cruises has pointed out the changes with respect to the new offer and complied with its pre-contractual obligation to provide information and if the customer declares his acceptance thereof to VIVA Cruises within the aforementioned binding period by express statement or by effecting the down payment.
- d) Travel agents (e.g. tourist agencies) and service providers (e.g. carriers) are not authorized to make agreements, provide information or give assurances which alter the agreed content of the Package Travel Contract, go beyond the services contractually promised by VIVA Cruises or contradict the travel proposal.
- e) VIVA Cruises notifies the customer of his rights under data privacy laws on the separate data privacy information sheets and asks him to take note of them.

1.2 The following applies to bookings made orally, by telephone, in writing, by email, text message or fax:

- a) With his booking (travel registration) the customer submits a binding offer to VIVA Cruises for the conclusion of the Package Travel Contract ("Contract" or "Package Travel Contract").
- b) The Contract is concluded upon receipt of the booking confirmation (notice of acceptance) by VIVA Cruises. It does not require any particular form. Upon or immediately after conclusion of the Contract, VIVA Cruises will send the customer a travel confirmation in writing or in text form.

1.3 The following applies with regard to the conclusion of the Contract to bookings by way of electronic business transactions (e.g. Internet, apps, telemedia³):

- a) The process of online booking is explained to the customer on the respective application.
- b) The customer has the option to make corrections (with explanations provided of how to use this option) for correcting his entries, deleting or resetting the entire booking form.
- c) The contractual languages offered for online booking are specified.
- d) If the text of the Contract is stored by VIVA Cruises, the customer will be informed accordingly, including the possibility of later retrieval of the text of the Contract.
- e) By pressing the button "booking subject to payment", the customer submits a binding offer to VIVA Cruises for the conclusion of the Package Travel Contract.
- f) The customer will immediately receive confirmation of receipt of his booking (travel registration) by electronic means (confirmation of receipt).

g) The transmission of the booking (travel registration) by pressing the button "booking subject to payment" does not establish a claim of the customer for the conclusion of a Package Travel Contract in accordance with his booking (travel registration). The Contract is concluded upon receipt of the booking confirmation from VIVA Cruises by the customer provided on a permanent data medium.

h) If the booking is confirmed immediately after pressing the button "booking subject to payment" by a display of the booking confirmation directly on the screen, then the Package Travel Contract has been concluded with the display of this booking confirmation. In this case, there is no need for an interim notification of the receipt of the booking according to lit. f) above, provided that the customer is offered the option to save the booking confirmation on a permanent data medium and to print it. However, the binding nature of the Package Travel Contract does not depend on the customer actually using these options for saving or printing the confirmation.

1.4 VIVA Cruises points out that according to the law (Sections 312 Paragraph 7, 312g Paragraph 2 Sentence 1 No. 9 German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch; "BGB")) package travel contracts pursuant to Sections 651a and 651c BGB entered into as distance contracts (letters, catalogues, telephone calls, faxes, email, text messages sent by cell phone as well as radio, telemedia and online services) are not subject to the customer's right of withdrawal from the Contract but only to the customer's statutory rights of cancellation and termination, in particular the right of cancellation pursuant to section 651h BGB (see also Clause 5 in this respect). There is a right of withdrawal, however, if the contract for travel services according to Section 651a BGB was entered into outside business premises, unless the oral negotiations, on which the conclusion of the contract is based, were conducted on the basis of a prior order of the consumer; in that latter case, the right of withdrawal does not apply.

2. Payment

2.1 VIVA Cruises has insolvency insurance (customer finance guarantor contract) with tourVERS to cover the travel price to be paid by the customer. A guarantee certificate will be attached to the travel confirmation, to the copy of the Contract or their back. VIVA Cruises and travel agents may only demand or accept payments on account of the travel price before the end of the Package Tour if an effective customer finance guarantor contract is in place and the customer has been provided with tourVERS's name and contact details in a clear and comprehensible manner, with that information highlighted. After conclusion of the Contract and handing over of the guarantee certificate, a down payment of 20% of the travel price becomes due for payment. The balance is due 30 days prior to the commencement of the Tour, provided that the guarantee certificate has been handed over and the Package Travel Contract can no longer be cancelled for the reason stated in Clause 8.1.

2.2 If the customer does not make the down payment and/or the payment of the balance in accordance with the agreed payment due dates even though VIVA Cruises is ready and in a position to properly perform its contractual services, has complied with its legal obligation to provide information, and the customer has no statutory or contractual right of retention, VIVA Cruises is entitled to cancel the Package Travel Contract after a reminder setting a deadline, and to charge the customer cancellation costs in accordance with Clause 5.2 sentence 2, to Clause 5.6.

3. Changes to the contents of the contract prior to the commencement of the tour not affecting the travel price

3.1 VIVA Cruises is permitted to deviate prior to the commencement of the Tour from the agreed content of the Package Travel Contract with respect to essential features of travel services, where such deviations become necessary after conclusion of the Contract and were not brought about by VIVA Cruises in bad faith, provided that such deviations are insignificant in nature and will not impair the overall Package Tour.

3.2 VIVA Cruises is entitled to in particular but not limited to make changes in travel times, routes and/or means of transport which become necessary due to the special conditions affecting travel by ship, due to security reasons or weather conditions or high or low water, due to orders issued by authorities (e.g. travel warnings issued by the Federal Foreign Office, restrictions due to an epidemic), for the protection of the health and safety of employees, crew and/or customers (e.g. from an epidemic) or for other reasons for which VIVA Cruises is not responsible, provided that these are minor changes only that will not affect the overall character of the Tour.

3.3 VIVA Cruises is obliged to inform the customer of any change to the travel services without undue delay after knowledge of its reason, on a permanent data medium (e.g. including an email, text message or voice message) in a clear and comprehensible manner, with that information highlighted.

3.4 In the event of a significant change of an essential feature of a travel service or a deviation from special specifications of the customers, which have become part of the Package Travel Contract, the customer is entitled to the following within the reasonable period set by VIVA Cruises in the notification of the change:

- either accept the change;
- or cancel the Package Travel Contract at no charge;
- or request participation in a substitute tour if VIVA Cruises offered one.

The customer has the option to respond or not to respond to VIVA Cruises' notification. If the customer responds to VIVA Cruises, he may either agree with the change of the Contract, request his participation in a substitute tour if one is offered to him, or cancel the Contract at no charge. If the customer fails to respond to VIVA Cruises or fails to do so within the period set, the notified change shall be deemed to have been accepted.

The customer must be made aware of this in a clear and comprehensible manner, with that information highlighted, in the notification pursuant to Clause 3.3 above.

3.5 Should the changed services be defective, potential warranty claims shall remain unaffected. If VIVA Cruises had lower costs for the performance of the changed or substitute tour for equivalent quality, the customer must be reimbursed in the amount of the difference in accordance with Section 651m Paragraph 2 BGB.

4. Price changes after conclusion of contract

4.1 VIVA Cruises reserves the right to change the price agreed in the Package Travel Contract in the event that the increase in the travel price results directly from an increase occurring after conclusion of the Contract in the price for the carriage of passengers due to higher costs for fuel or other energy sources (costs of carriage), taxes and other charges for agreed services such as tourist taxes, port or airport charges or air passenger taxes or a change in the exchange rates applicable to the relevant Package occurring after conclusion of the Contract, as follows:

- a) If the underlying costs of carriage (in particular fuel costs) increase after conclusion of the Package Travel Contract, VIVA Cruises may increase the travel price according to the following calculation:
 - In the case of an increase related to the seat or bed, VIVA Cruises may charge the amount of the increase to the customer.
 - In other cases, the additional costs of carriage charged by the carrier per means of transport are divided by the number of seats or beds of the agreed means of transport. The amount of the increase resulting from that calculation may be charged by VIVA Cruises to the customer for the individual seat or bed.
- b) If taxes and other levies such as tourist taxes, port/airport charges or air passenger taxes applicable at the time of conclusion of the Package Travel Contract charged to VIVA Cruises are increased, the travel price may be increased by the corresponding proportional amount.
- c) In the event of a change in the exchange rates after conclusion of the Package Travel Contract, the travel price may be increased to the extent that the Package has become more expensive for VIVA Cruises as a result.

d) In the event of a subsequent change in the travel price, VIVA Cruises must inform the customer without undue delay in a clear and comprehensible manner on a permanent data medium (e.g. an email) about the price increase, its reasons and the calculation of the increase. The price may not be increased less than 20 days before the commencement of the Tour.

e) VIVA Cruises may not unilaterally increase prices by more than 8%. VIVA Cruises shall offer the customer the price increase and request that the customer either accept it within a reasonable period of time or cancel the Contract at no cost. The offer to increase the price may not be made less than 20 days before the commencement of the Tour. VIVA Cruises may also offer the customer to participate in another Package (substitute). The customer has no legal claim to this option. Upon expiry of the period specified by VIVA Cruises, the offer to amend the Contract shall be deemed accepted. The acceptance by the customer of any substitute VIVA Cruises may offer requires the customer's express notice of acceptance to VIVA Cruises.

4.2 At the customer's request, VIVA Cruises is obliged to reduce the travel price if and to the extent that the costs of carriage, taxes or exchange rates referred to in Clause 4.1 have changed after conclusion of the Contract and before the commencement of the Tour to such extent that the Package comes at a lower cost to VIVA Cruises. If the customer has paid more than the amount owed as a result, VIVA Cruises shall refund the excess amount, while VIVA Cruises is entitled to deduct the actual administrative expenses incurred. At the customer's request, VIVA Cruises shall provide evidence of the amount of administrative expenses incurred.

5. Cancellation of the contract by the customer prior to commencement of the tour/cancellation costs

5.1 The customer may cancel the Package at any time prior to the commencement of the Tour. The cancellation must be expressed by notice given to VIVA Cruises. If the Package was booked through a travel agent, the notice of cancellation may also be given to the agent. It is recommended that the customer give his notice of cancellation in text form on a permanent data medium.

5.2 If the customer cancels prior to the commencement of the Tour or does not set out on the Package Tour, VIVA Cruises loses the right to claim the travel price. Instead, VIVA Cruises may claim appropriate compensation if VIVA Cruises is not responsible for the cancellation or if unavoidable, extraordinary circumstances occur at or in the immediate vicinity of the destination which significantly impair the performance of the Package Tour or the carriage of passengers to the destination. Circumstances shall be deemed unavoidable and extraordinary if they are not under the control of the party that invokes them and their consequences could not have been avoided even if all reasonable precautions had been taken.

5.3 VIVA Cruises has determined the following lump sum compensation, taking into account the period between the notice of cancellation and the commencement of the Tour as well as the expected cost savings and the expected earnings by the use of the travel services in another way. The compensation shall be calculated as follows after the date of receipt of the notice of cancellation:

- up to 120 days prior to the commencement of the Tour 10%,
- from the 119th to the 90th day prior to the commencement of the Tour 20%,
- from the 89th to the 30th day prior to the commencement of the Tour 40%,
- from the 29th to the 15th day prior to the commencement of the Tour 60%,
- from the 14th to the 1st day prior to the commencement of the Tour 80% of the travel price,
- Cancellation on the date of the Tour or failure to set out on the Package Tour: 90% of the travel price.

5.4 In any case, the customer is at liberty to prove to VIVA Cruises that VIVA Cruises has incurred no damage or a substantially lower damage than the lump sum claimed by VIVA Cruises.

5.5 VIVA Cruises reserves the right to claim a higher compensation instead of the above lump sums, calculated individually on the basis of the travel price less the value of the costs saved by VIVA Cruises and less what VIVA Cruises earns through the use of the travel services in another way. In this case, VIVA Cruises is obliged to justify upon the customer's request the amount of the compensation claimed.

5.6 If, in the case of a jointly booked double cabin, one passenger paying full fare cancels prior to the commencement of the Tour, with the consequence that the double cabin is now used as a single cabin, VIVA Cruises is entitled to the compensation specified under 5.3, but at least to a lump sum compensation in the amount of the surcharge otherwise payable for a single cabin at the time of booking. The same applies if a customer paying full fare cancels a cabin booked for several passengers, so that a cabin, which is originally intended for three or four people, is used by fewer people.

5.7 If VIVA Cruises is obliged to reimburse the travel price (if already paid) as a result of the cancellation, VIVA Cruises shall reimburse it without undue delay, but in any case within 14 days of the cancellation.

5.8 VIVA Cruises strongly recommends that the customer take out travel cancellation insurance and luggage and travel accident insurance (in the event that interruption of travel, e.g. due to an accident, becomes necessary).

6. Change of reservation

6.1 After conclusion of the Contract, the customer is not entitled to changes with regard to the travel date, the destination, place of departure, accommodation or the mode of carriage (rebooking). This shall not apply if the rebooking is required because VIVA Cruises failed to provide the customer with pre-contractual information as defined in Art. 250 Paragraph 3 Introductory Act to the Civil Code ("EGBGB"), or provided insufficient or erroneous pre-contractual information; in this case, rebooking is allowed free of charge. If, in all other cases, a rebooking is nevertheless made at the customer's request at least 90 days prior to commencement of the Tour, VIVA Cruises may charge a rebooking fee of 50€ per customer. In individual cases, e.g. where flights are involved, the additional rebooking costs may be considerably higher.

6.2 Any rebooking requests made by the customer after expiry of the 90-day period, if possible at all, requires the cancellation of the Package Travel Contract in accordance with the terms set forth in Clauses 5.2 to 5.7 with simultaneous new registration. This does not apply to rebooking requests that cause only negligible costs.

6.3 Any airline charges for the correction of names on airline tickets that have already been issued (as opposed to a change of the passenger) may be passed on to the customer. In addition to this, VIVA Cruises may also charge a rebooking fee of 50€ in these cases.

6.4 The customer may make a declaration to VIVA Cruises up to 7 days in advance of the commencement of the Tour that not the customer himself but a third party will join the Package Travel Contract as a party to the Contract, assuming all rights and obligations thereunder. This declaration must be made on a durable medium (paper or electronic). VIVA Cruises is entitled to object to the third party joining the Contract if that third party is not in compliance with the contractual requirements for the Tour. If a third party joins the Contract, this third party and the customer shall be liable to VIVA Cruises as joint and several debtors for the travel price and the additional costs incurred due to the third party joining the Contract. These additional costs must be appropriate and must have actually been incurred, which VIVA Cruises shall prove to the customer.

6.5 Rebooking fees are due and payable immediately.

7. Services not used

If the customer does not make use of individual travel services properly provided to him for reasons attributable to him (e.g. premature return or for other compelling reasons), he is not entitled to a pro rata refund of the travel price, unless such reasons would have entitled him to cancel or terminate the Package Travel Contract free of charge in accordance with the law. VIVA Cruises will endeavor to reimburse the expenses saved by the service providers. This obligation shall not apply in the case of entirely insignificant services.

8. Minimum number of participants not reached/Cancellation by VIVA Cruises prior to the commencement of the Tour

8.1 The minimum number of participants for all VIVA Cruises Package Tours is 80 persons. If the minimum number of participants is not reached, VIVA Cruises may cancel the Package Travel Contract only if VIVA Cruises has

- a) specified the minimum number of participants in the pre-contractual information and has given the latest date by which the notification must be received by the customer prior to the contractually agreed commencement of the Tour; and
- b) specified the minimum number of participants and the latest date for cancellation in the travel confirmation.

Notice of cancellation must be given to the customer by the 31st day prior to the agreed commencement of the Tour at the latest, but in any event no later than by the date indicated to the customer in the pre-contractual information and the travel confirmation. Should it become apparent at an earlier point in time that the minimum number of participants cannot be reached, VIVA Cruises must exercise its cancellation right without undue delay.

8.2 VIVA Cruises may also cancel the Package Travel Contract prior to the commencement of the Tour if VIVA Cruises is prevented from fulfilling the Contract due to unavoidable extraordinary circumstances. Circumstances are unavoidable and extraordinary if they are beyond the control of the party invoking them and their consequences could not have been prevented even if all reasonable precautions had been taken. Unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances are e.g. wars, civil wars, natural disasters, occurring epidemics (in particular the Covid-19 epidemic), terrorist attacks as well as official orders issued after the conclusion of the Contract, entry bans (in particular due to epidemics) and travel warnings of the Foreign Office for the destination or an intermediate destination of the Tour. Notice of cancellation according to this Clause 8.2 must be given to the customer without undue delay upon becoming aware of the reason for the cancellation. VIVA Cruises may cancel the Package Travel Contract if it is necessary, for economic reasons, for the vessel intended to be used for the Tour to be redeployed elsewhere (e.g. in the event of it being exclusively chartered by a third party). Notice of cancellation must be given to the customer by the 31st day prior to the agreed commencement of the Tour at the latest. Should it become apparent at an earlier point in time that the vessel intended to be used for the Tour must be redeployed elsewhere, VIVA Cruises must exercise its cancellation right without undue delay. Notice of cancellation according to this Clause 8.2 must be given to the customer without undue delay upon becoming aware of the reason for the cancellation.

8.3 If VIVA Cruises cancels the Contract in accordance with above Clause 8.1 or 8.2, VIVA Cruises loses the right to claim the agreed travel price. If it has already been (partially) paid, VIVA Cruises shall refund the payments made without undue delay, but in any case, within 14 days. There is no right to claim additional compensation in the event of cancellation in accordance with Clauses 8.1 and 8.2.

9. Rescission/Termination of contract by VIVA Cruises for reasons related to behavior, illness, or pregnancy

In the following cases, VIVA Cruises may rescind the Package Travel Contract in whole or in part without notice prior to the commencement of the journey, or terminate the Package Travel Contract in whole or in part without notice after the commencement of the journey:

- a) If the customer, in the judgement of the captain, where applicable, after having consulted the ship's physician,
 - is unfit to travel due to illness, infirmity, or for any other reason;
 - needs to be accompanied but travels unaccompanied;
 - is a danger to the health of other passengers, crew members, and employees of VIVA Cruises (e.g. due to contagion or threat of epidemic spread, e.g. Covid-19) ;

- has booked by providing false information
- notwithstanding a warning from VIVA Cruises, causes permanent or repeated disturbance or behaves contrary to the Contract to such an extent that the immediate cancellation of the Contract in whole or in part is justified;

- b) in the event of pregnancy, if the customer is in her 24th week of pregnancy or beyond at the time of departure or if she reaches the 24th week of pregnancy during the voyage. In these cases, the carriage is excluded for safety reasons and due to limited medical care on board VIVA Cruises vessels. If the customer could not have known this at the time of booking, VIVA Cruises will reimburse the travel price already paid if notified immediately after the customer becoming aware of the pregnancy. If such notification is culpably delayed, VIVA Cruises reserves the right to make a claim in accordance with Clause 5. Expectant mothers less than 24 weeks pregnant at the time of embarkation must present a specialist (gynecological) certificate of fitness to travel confirming the navigated area. If VIVA Cruises terminates or rescinds the Contract for any of the reasons specified under a) above, the customer may be entirely or partially excluded from the (continuation of the) Tour. VIVA Cruises retains the right to claim the travel price; however, VIVA Cruises must take into account the value of the cost savings as well as those benefits that VIVA Cruises obtains from the use of the travel services in another way, including the credits VIVA Cruises receives from the service providers. Any additional costs incurred for the return trip shall be borne by the customer.

10. Duties of the customer to cooperate

10.1 Travel documents

The customer must inform VIVA Cruises if he has not received the required travel documents (e.g. flight ticket, train ticket, hotel voucher) within the period specified by VIVA Cruises.

10.2 Notice of defects / Request for remedy of defects

If the Package Tour is not provided free from travel defects, the customer may claim remedial action. If the customer culpably fails to notify VIVA Cruises immediately of a travel defect and VIVA Cruises was therefore unable to remedy the situation, the customer is not entitled to assert claims for reduction in price according to Section 651m BGB or claims for damages according to Section 651n BGB. This shall not apply only if the notice of defect is clearly futile or unreasonable for other reasons. The customer is obliged to notify the representative of VIVA Cruises at the holiday destination of the defect without undue delay, i.e. the tour guide on board or on site. If the tour guide is not available, or if there is no tour guide and none is owed under the Contract, any travel defects must be reported to VIVA Cruises at its registered office under the contact information provided. Information on how to contact the tour guide or VIVA Cruises is included in the booking confirmation or is provided at the latest with the travel documents. The tour guide is charged with remedying the situation, provided this is possible and does not entail disproportionate costs, taking into account the extent of the defect and the value of the travel service concerned. If VIVA Cruises/the tour guide invoke the impossibility or economic inefficiency of the remedy for a considerable part of the travel services, VIVA Cruises shall, if possible, offer the customer an appropriate, equivalent alternative service comparable to the service agreed upon in the Contract. The tour guide is not authorized to recognize claims.

10.3 Period allowed for remedy prior to termination of Contract

If the Package Tour is substantially impaired by a defect and a customer wishes to terminate the Package Travel Contract according to Section 651l BGB due to a defect of the kind described in Section 651i Paragraph 2 BGB, provided that it is substantial, he first has to set VIVA Cruises an appropriate period for remedy. This shall not apply if immediate remedy is necessary or the remedy is refused by VIVA Cruises.

10.4 Clauses 10.1 and 10.2 are only applicable to package travel contracts concluded before 8 March 2020. Regarding all package travel contracts concluded after 8 March 2020 Article 240 § 6 EGBGB shall apply.

10.5 Damage to, and delayed delivery of, luggage in air travel; special rules and periods for seeking redress

- a) The customer is advised that any delayed, lost or damaged luggage in connection with air travel must be reported by the customer in accordance with air traffic regulations to the relevant airline without undue delay on the spot by means of a damage report (P.I.R.). Airlines and tour operators may refuse refunds on the basis of international treaties if the damage report has not been completed. In the event of damage to luggage, the damage report must be filed within 7 days and in the event of delay within 21 days of delivery.

- b) In addition, the loss, damage or misdirection of luggage must be reported without undue delay to the representative of VIVA Cruises (tour guide) or VIVA Cruises. This shall not release the customer from filing a damage report with the airline pursuant to lit. a) above within the periods stated above.

11. Limitation of liability

- 11.1 The contractual liability of VIVA Cruises for damages which do not arise from loss of life, bodily injury or damage to health and which were not culpably (intentionally or negligently) caused is limited to three times the travel price. This maximum liability amount applies per customer and per journey. Any further claims under the Montreal Convention or the Air Traffic Act shall remain unaffected by the limitation.

- 11.2 VIVA Cruises is not liable for disruptions to services, personal injury and damage to property in connection with services which are merely arranged by VIVA Cruises and actually provided by third parties ("Third-Party Services", e.g. excursions, sports events, theatre visits, exhibitions, transport services from and to the specified place of departure and destination) if these services are expressly marked as Third-Party Services in the travel description and booking confirmation stating the arranged contractual partner in such a clear manner that the customer is able to recognize that these services are not part of the travel services provided by VIVA Cruises. Sections 651b, 651c, 651w and 651y BGB shall remain unaffected. However, VIVA Cruises shall be liable if and to the extent that the violation of VIVA Cruises' duties of information, clarification or organization were the cause of damage to the customer.

- 11.3 If international agreements or statutory provisions based on such agreements apply to a travel service to be provided by a service provider, according to which a claim for damages can only arise or be asserted under certain conditions or restrictions or is excluded under certain conditions, VIVA Cruises, in its capacity as the tour operator, may invoke the same in its dealings with the customer.

- 11.4 Where VIVA Cruises acts in the capacity of a contractual or performing carrier with regard to the voyage or VIVA Cruises is regarded as such according to statutory provisions, VIVA Cruises shall be liable according to the specifically applicable statutory provisions (in particular according to the provisions of the German Inland Waterways Act and the German Commercial Code).

- 11.5 Where VIVA Cruises acts in the capacity of a contractual or performing air carrier with regard to carriage by air or VIVA Cruises is regarded as such according to statutory provisions, VIVA Cruises' liability shall be governed by the specifically applicable statutory provisions or those stipulated in international agreements (including the German Air Traffic Act, the Montreal Convention).

- 11.6 VIVA Cruises shall not be liable for damage to or loss of personal items (e.g. photographic or film equipment, clothing, jewelry or other valuables) caused by theft, getting lost in any other manner, or excessive physical loads or stresses occurring off board the vessel, unless the damage or loss is due to intentional or grossly negligent conduct on the part of VIVA Cruises. Any and all liability is also excluded for storage or transport in the vehicles used for onshore activities or transfers, unless intentional or grossly negligent conduct on the part of VIVA Cruises has resulted in the damage or loss. VIVA Cruises shall be liable for damage to or loss of cabin luggage in accordance with the provisions of the German Commercial Code. Jewelry, cash, or other valuables must be safely stored and transported in the carry-on luggage during arrival and departure (not in the checked luggage).

- 11.7 If a claim is made against an employee or agent of VIVA Cruises for damage incurred in connection with the carriage, this employee or agent may, provided he proves that he acted in the performance of his duties, invoke the defenses and limitations of liability which apply to VIVA Cruises under these travel conditions.

12. Limitation of actions, assertion of claims

- 12.1 The claims of the customer specified in Section 651i Paragraph 3 BGB shall be time-barred in accordance with Section 651j BGB in two years.
- 12.2 The limitation period starts to run on the day on which the Package Tour is scheduled to end according to the Contract. If the last day of that period falls on a Sunday, a public holiday recognized by the state at the place where the notice is given, or a Saturday, the next business day shall take the place of such a day.
- 12.3 Claims pursuant to Section 651i Paragraph 3 No. 2, 4-7 BGB must be lodged by the customer with VIVA Cruises. It is recommended to lodge the claim in writing on a permanent data medium.
- 12.4 If negotiations between the customer and VIVA Cruises about the claim or the circumstances substantiating the claim are pending, the limitation period shall be suspended until the customer or VIVA Cruises refuses to continue the negotiations. The limitation occurs at the earliest three months after the end of the suspension.
- 12.5 In the case of damage to, or delays in the delivery of, luggage in connection with flights in accordance with Clause 10.4, the following shall apply: A claim for damages due to damage to luggage must be asserted within 7 days, a claim for damages due to delayed luggage within 21 days after delivery.
- 12.6 The travel agency only acts as an agent when the travel Contract is concluded. It is not authorized to accept the filing of warranty and compensation claims by the customer after the end of the trip.
- 12.7 Without the consent of VIVA Cruises, customers may not transfer claims against VIVA Cruises to third parties, either in whole or in part. This does not apply among accompanying family members.

13. Carriage by air and obligation to provide information on the identity of the operating air carrier

- 13.1 If the Tour involves air carriage, this portion of the Tour shall be governed by the terms and conditions of the airline operating the respective flights (cf. also Clause 11.5 regarding liability), which terms and conditions will be provided by VIVA Cruises on request. The scheduling of these special flights depends on the availability of the airplanes on the charter market and the authorization by air-traffic control; therefore, early morning or late-night departures or arrivals may therefore occur.
- 13.2 The EU regulation on informing air transport passengers of the identity of the operating air carrier puts VIVA Cruises under the obligation to inform the customer of the identity of the operating air carrier for any and all air transport services to be provided within the scope of the booked Package at the time of booking. If the operating airline has not yet been determined at the time of booking, VIVA Cruises is obliged to inform the customer of the airline(s) which is/are likely to operate the flight(s). VIVA Cruises must inform the customer accordingly as soon as VIVA Cruises knows which airline will operate the flight. If due to changes another airline than the one specified to the customer will be the operating airline, VIVA Cruises must inform the customer accordingly. VIVA Cruises must immediately take all reasonable steps to ensure that the customer is informed of any such changes as soon as possible. The list of airlines banned from operating within the EU ("Black List") is available on the following website: https://ec.europa.eu/transport/modes/air/safety/air-ban_en

14. Rail booking

- 14.1 All train tickets booked through VIVA Cruises can only be booked in connection with a package tour offered by VIVA Cruises.
- 14.2 The train tickets booked through VIVA Cruises must be carried on the Tour and presented upon ticket control on the train.
- 14.3 If the customer books a train ticket to the airport through VIVA Cruises, the customer must choose his train ride such that he reaches the airport as scheduled at least three hours prior to the departure of the flight. If the customer books a train ticket to the port, departure must be chosen such that he reaches the ship at least three hours prior to its specified departure. If these time periods are not complied with and if the customer is responsible for such non-compliance, VIVA Cruises shall not be liable for any possible consequential damages.

- 14.4 The train ride booked through VIVA Cruises is an integral part of the Package Tour. Any claims due to delays, train cancellations or other deficiencies of the train ride can be asserted either against VIVA Cruises or directly against DB Dialog GmbH, Servicenter Fahrgastrechte, 60647 Frankfurt, Germany. For this purpose, the completed passenger rights form (Fahrgastrechte-Formular), the original train ticket, the certificate of delay, and, if applicable, any other original receipts for which the customer requires reimbursement must be submitted.

15. Passport, visa and health regulations

- 15.1 The customer must comply with all laws, regulations, directions or provisions of travel (rules and regulations) of the countries and ports affected by the Tour, and with all instructions issued by VIVA Cruises and its agents. VIVA Cruises shall inform customers who are citizens of EU members states about general passport and visa requirements as well as formalities required by health authorities of the country of destination, including the approximate deadlines for obtaining visas, prior to the conclusion of the Contract and any changes thereto prior to departure. Citizens of other countries may obtain that information from the competent consulate. This always under the assumption that no special circumstances apply to the person of the customer and any accompanying persons (such as dual citizenship, statelessness).
- 15.2 The customer is responsible for obtaining and carrying the travel documents required by the authorities (such as visa, vaccination certificates, online travel permits such as the ESTA authorization for US travel), any necessary vaccinations and compliance with customs and foreign exchange regulations. Any loss arising from non-compliance with these regulations, e.g. the payment of cancellation costs, fines, penalties and expenses, shall be borne by the customer, unless VIVA Cruises has not provided any, or only has provided insufficient or incorrect, information. If VIVA Cruises has to pay or deposit sums of money in this connection, the customer is obliged to reimburse those immediately.
- 15.3 Additional costs (e.g. for additional catering on board) that arise due to a quarantine for which VIVA Cruises is not responsible are to be borne or reimbursed by the customer.
- 15.4 In the event that the customer fails to comply with the entry rules of individual countries or visa are not granted in time due to the customer's fault, so that the customer is unable to participate in the Tour for that reason, VIVA Cruises may charge the customer with the cancellation fees in accordance with Clause 5. In this case, the customer has the right to prove to VIVA Cruises that no damage has occurred or that the damage is significantly lower than the lump-sum compensation.

16. Information for persons with reduced mobility and other restrictions

- 16.1 VIVA Cruises wishes to ensure that customers with physical disabilities can enjoy a pleasant journey on board the ships of its fleet. For this purpose, VIVA Cruises must be informed of any special requests and needs of the customer due to physical impairments before booking. VIVA Cruises will then always endeavor to help the customer achieve the best possible travel experience, in particular by checking the suitability of the Package Tour requested by the customer and providing the customer with more detailed information in this respect.
- 16.2 The safety of the customer has priority at VIVA Cruises. For this reason, all customers who are deaf, in a wheelchair, blind or whose vision is considerably impaired despite vision aids, have to inform VIVA Cruises of their restrictions before booking. Together, we can then ponder the measures that are necessary to ensure the safety of the customer on board and for any planned excursions (e.g. accompanying person on the journey). If the restrictions only occur after booking, the customer must inform VIVA Cruises in good time so that any necessary measures can be agreed for the safety of the customer.

17. Refusal of landing permit, cost of onward journey

If the landing or entry of the customer and/or the import of his luggage in the designated port or country is refused, VIVA Cruises may transport the customer and/or his luggage to another port or country called at by the vessel and disembark them there. The customer must pay VIVA Cruises a fee corresponding to the onward journey and compensate VIVA Cruises for all other expenses incurred in connection therewith. These terms and conditions of travel shall also apply to such onward journey.

18. Assistance, salvage

VIVA Cruises shall be entitled to provide assistance to other ships, to tow and salvage ships with the vessel used. All such activities, whether previously announced or not, shall be deemed part of the Tour.

19. Medical care

The services of the ship's physician – if one is carried onboard - are not part of the Package Travel Contract. In each case, the patient concludes a separate treatment contract with the ship's physician. Only the costs of treatment resulting from an accident caused by VIVA Cruises or its employees on board or during an onshore activity organized by VIVA Cruises shall be borne by VIVA Cruises.

20. Applicable law, jurisdiction, alternative dispute resolution

- 20.1 These Standard Terms and Conditions and the legal relationship as a whole between VIVA Cruises and the customer are subject to the substantive law of the Federal Republic of Germany.
- 20.2 The place of jurisdiction for legal actions against VIVA Cruises is Düsseldorf. The place of residence of the customer shall govern the place of jurisdiction for any legal action brought by VIVA Cruises against the customer. As regards actions against customers who are merchants [as defined in the German Commercial Code], legal entities under public or private law, or persons who have their residence or habitual abode abroad, or whose residence or habitual abode is unknown at the time of bringing the action, Düsseldorf shall be agreed as the place of jurisdiction.
- 20.3 The provisions set forth above shall not apply
- a) if and to the extent that provisions of international agreements applicable to this contractual relationship, which cannot be contracted away, provide otherwise in favor of the customer, or
 - b) if and to the extent that provisions of a member state of the EU to which the customer belongs, which are applicable to the Package Travel Contract and cannot be contracted away, are more favorable to the customer than these provisions or the corresponding German statutory provisions.
- 20.4 With a view to the German Consumer Dispute Resolution Act, VIVA Cruises points out that it is not participating in voluntary consumer dispute resolution. Should consumer dispute resolution become mandatory for VIVA Cruises after the printing of these travel conditions, VIVA Cruises will inform the customer accordingly in an appropriate manner. VIVA Cruises refers to the European online dispute resolution platform at <https://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/> for all travel contracts entered into by electronic legal transaction. VIVA Cruises is not currently participating in this voluntary procedure.
